16 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

17
18 Section 1. Subsections (5) and (6) of section 322.142,
19 Florida Statutes, 1998 Supplement, are repealed.

20 Section 2. Subsection (8) is added to section 21 282.3091, Florida Statutes, 1998 Supplement, to read:

22 282.3091 State Technology Council; creation.--
23 (8) The council shall create a Task Force on Privacy
24 and Technology. The task force shall include professionals in 25 the fields of communications, government, law enforcement, 26 law, marketing, technology, and financial services, including,
27 but not limited to, the Society of Consumer Affairs
28 Professionals in Business, the Florida Retail Federation, and 29 the Office of Statewide Prosecution. The task force shall 30 study and make recommendations by February 1, 2000, in a 31 report to the Legislature and the Governor regarding:

1 (a) Privacy issues under the Constitutions and laws of 2 the United States and the State of Florida, the Public Records
3 Act, and the advent of the use of advanced technologies.

4 (b) Technology fraud, including, but not limited to,
5 the illegal use of citizens' identities and credit.

6 (c) Balancing the traditional openness of public 7 records in the state with the need to protect the privacy and 8 identity of individuals.

9 (d) The sale of public records to private individuals
10 and companies.

11
12 In order to carry out its duties and responsibilities, the 13 task force shall hold a summit to gather the best available
14 knowledge regarding these issues. The council shall staff the 15 task force as necessary. The members of the task force shall 16 serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for 17 reasonable and necessary expenses of attending the summit and 18 performing duties of the task force, including per diem and 19 travel expenses as provided in s. 112.061. Such expenses shall 20 be reimbursed from funds of the Department of Highway Safety
21 and Motor Vehicles. This subsection is repealed July 1, 2000.

22 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 23 law.
