19 Section 12. In order to inform the public and to 20 deter and prevent crime, the Office of the Governor shall 21 place public service announcements in areas having the highest 22 representation in the correctional system explaining the 23 penalties provided in this act. In addition, the Office of 24 the Governor shall place public service announcements directed
25 to areas of the state which have the highest rate of felony
26 offenses to maximize the preventative aspects of advertising
27 the penalties imposed by this act. Appropriations designated 28 in Chapter 99-12, Laws of Florida, for public service
29 announcements, shall also be used to fund the public service
30 announcements required in this section.
