An act relating to restitution; amending s.
775.089, F.S.; specifying retention of jurisdiction by the court to enforce restitution under certain circumstances;
providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsection (3) of section 775.089, Florida
Statutes, is amended to read:

775.089 Restitution.--

(3)(a) The court may require that the defendant make restitution under this section within a specified period or in specified installments.

(b) The end of such period or the last such installment shall not be later than:

1. The end of the period of probation if probation is ordered;

2. Five years after the end of the term of imprisonment imposed if the court does not order probation; or

3. Five years after the date of sentencing in any other case.

(c) Notwithstanding this subsection, a court that has ordered restitution for a misdemeanor offense shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing the restitution order for any period, not to exceed 5 years, that is pronounced by the court at the time restitution is ordered.

(d)~~(c)~~ If not otherwise provided by the court under this subsection, restitution must be made immediately.

1 If the restitution ordered by the court is not made within the
2 time period specified, the court may continue the restitution
3 order through the duration of the civil judgment provision set
4 forth in subsection (5) and as provided in s. 55.10.

5 Section 2. This act shall take effect October 1, 1999.
