A bill to be entitled
An act relating to elections; creating s.
100.065, F.S.; allowing all voters to vote in certain primary election contests; providing for runoffs at the general election; specifying procedures for placing the candidates' names on the ballots required; amending ss. 101.021, 101.251, and 101.5606, F.S., to conform;
providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 100.065, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

100.065 Other candidates on primary and general election ballots.--

(1) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, if all candidates for an office are seeking the nomination of the same political party and there will otherwise be no opposition in the general election, all registered electors, regardless of party affiliation, may vote for that office in the first primary election and, if necessary, in the general election.

(2) When two or more candidates have qualified for an office and there is only one political party represented and there will otherwise be no opposition for that office in the general election, the names of such candidates shall be placed on the first primary election ballot of each political party holding a primary election and on a ballot for voters registered with no party affiliation or registered in a party that is not holding a primary election. The names of the

1 candidates for each such office shall be grouped on a separate 2 portion of the ballot or on a separate ballot. Such offices 3 shall be placed under the heading of "Universal Primary" in 4 the order determined by the Department of State. Following 5 each candidate's name shall be the appropriate abbreviation of 6 party name.

7 (3) If any candidate for such office receives a
8 majority of the votes cast for such office in the first 9 primary election, the name of the candidate who receives such 10 majority shall not appear on any other ballot. Such candidate 11 shall be deemed to have voted for himself or herself at the 12 general election. If no candidate for such office receives a 13 majority of the votes cast for such office in the first 14 primary election, the names of the two candidates receiving 15 the highest number of votes for such office shall be placed on 16 the general election ballot. If more than two candidates for 17 such office receive an equal and highest number of votes, the 18 name of each candidate receiving an equal and highest number 19 of votes shall be placed on the general election ballot. In 20 any contest in which there is a tie for second place and the 21 candidate placing first did not receive a majority of the 22 votes cast for such office, the name of the candidate placing 23 first and the name of each candidate tying for second shall be 24 placed on the general election ballot.

25 Section 2. Section 101.021, Florida Statutes, is 26 amended to read:

27 101.021 Elector to vote the primary ballot of the 28 political party in which he or she is registered; 29 ~~exception.--In a primary election a qualified elector is~~ 30 ~~entitled to vote the official primary election ballot of the~~ 31 ~~political party designated in the elector's registration, and~~

1 ~~no other.~~ Except as provided in s. 100.065, it is unlawful for 2 any elector to vote in a primary for any candidate running for 3 nomination from a party other than that in which such elector 4 is registered.

5 Section 3. Subsection (2) of section 101.251, Florida
6 Statutes, is amended to read:

7 101.251 Information which supervisor of elections must 8 print on ballots.--

9 (2) In addition to the names printed on the ballot as 10 provided in subsection (1), the supervisor of elections of 11 each county shall have printed on the general election ballot 12 to be used in the county the names of the candidates who are 13 entitled pursuant to s. 100.065 to have their names printed on 14 the ballot, the names of the judicial officers, as defined in 15 chapter 105, who are entitled to have their names printed on 16 the ballot, and minor party and independent candidates who 17 have obtained a position on the general election ballot in 18 compliance with the requirements of this code.

19 Section 4. Subsection (5) of section 101.5606, Florida
20 Statutes, is amended to read:

21 101.5606 Requirements for approval of systems.--No 22 electronic or electromechanical voting system shall be 23 approved by the Department of State unless it is so 24 constructed that:

25 (5) It permits each voter at a primary election to 26 vote only for the candidates seeking nomination by the 27 political party in which such voter is registered, except as 28 provided in s. 100.065; for any candidate for nonpartisan 29 office; ~~and~~ and for any question upon which the voter is entitled 30 to vote.
