14 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

16           Section 1. Section 812.030, Florida Statutes, is 17 created to read:

18           812.030 Culpable negligence causing public financial 19 injury.--

20           (1) For purposes of this act:

21           (a) "Culpable negligence" means negligence of a gross 22 and flagrant character which evinces a reckless disregard for 23 public property and is so outrageous as to raise a presumption 24 that the offender was indifferent to the consequences of his 25 or her action or inaction.

26           (b) "Public property" means property, as defined in s.
27 812.012, which is owned by the state, except funds held by the 28 state for investment purposes, including public employee

1       (c) "State" means the state, any agency of the state,
2 any political subdivision of the state, or any agency of a
3 political subdivision of the state.

4       (2)(a) A person commits the offense of culpable 5 negligence causing public financial injury if the state has 6 entrusted public property to such person and the person
7 through culpable negligence causes losses, or through inaction
8 allows losses, in the value of such property of $100,000 or 9 more in any 12-month period. For purposes of this paragraph:

10       1. "Entrust" means giving custody or control by any 11 means, to a person or, in the case of a legal entity, to that 12 entity's officers, directors, employees, or agents who have 13 managerial authority over the public property or who could 14 otherwise prevent financial injury, regardless of the 15 existence of a fiduciary relationship.

16       2. "Causes losses, or through inaction allows losses"
17 means acting or failing to act under circumstances which would 18 indicate that a loss of value would occur when such a loss 19 could reasonably be foreseen and prevented, even though the 20 loss was not actually intended.

21       (b) If the loss is valued at $100,000 or more, but 22 less than $1 million, the offense is a misdemeanor of the 23 first degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082 and 24 775.083.

25       (c) If the loss is valued at $1 million or more, the 26 offense is a felony of the third degree, punishable as 27 provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

28       (3) Any state contract with a contract value of 29 $50,000 or more shall include notice of the provisions of 30 subsection (2). Failure to provide this notice shall not 31

1 constitute a defense to the crime of culpable negligence
2 causing public financial injury.

3 (4) Prosecutions for violations of this section may be 4 brought on behalf of the state by any state attorney or by the 5 statewide prosecutor. Only the Department of Legal Affairs,
6 any state attorney, or any state agency having jurisdiction
7 over conduct in violation of a provision of ss.
8 812.012-812.037 or s. 812.081 may institute civil proceedings
9 under this section.

10 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999.
