See HB

1 A bill to be entitled
 2 An act relating to epidural anesthesia;
 3 amending ss. 627.6406, 627.6574, and 641.31,
 4 F.S.; requiring health insurance policies and 5 health maintenance organization contracts that 6 cover maternity care to cover the 7 administration of epidural anesthesia during 8 labor and delivery; prohibiting restricting or 9 refusing access to such procedure, except when 10 medically contraindicated; prohibiting 11 requiring a patient's advance notice or special 12 consent to such procedure; providing an 13 effective date.

14
 15 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

16
 17 Section 1. Subsection (8) is added to section
 18 627.6406, Florida Statutes, to read:
 19 627.6406 Maternity care.--
 20 (8) Any policy of health insurance that provides 21 coverage for maternity care must provide coverage for the 22 administration of epidural anesthesia during labor and
 23 delivery. The patient's access to such procedure may not be 24 restricted or refused unless the procedure is determined by
 25 the attending physician to be medically contraindicated. A
 26 physician, hospital, or birth center may not require a patient
 27 to provide advance notice or special consent in order to
 28 obtain epidural anesthesia during labor and delivery.

29 Section 2. Subsection (8) is added to section
 30 627.6574, Florida Statutes, to read:
 31 627.6574 Maternity care.--

1 (8) Any group, blanket, or franchise policy of health
2 insurance that provides coverage for maternity care must 3 provide coverage for the administration of epidural anesthesia 4 during labor and delivery. The patient's access to such 5 procedure may not be restricted or refused unless the 6 procedure is determined by the attending physician to be 7 medically contraindicated. A physician, hospital, or birth 8 center may not require a patient to provide advance notice or 9 special consent in order to obtain epidural anesthesia during 10 labor and delivery.

11 Section 3. Subsection (36) is added to section 641.31,
12 Florida Statutes, 1998 Supplement, to read:

13 641.31 Health maintenance contracts.--

14 (36) A health maintenance contract that provides 15 coverage for maternity care must provide coverage for the 16 administration of epidural anesthesia during labor and
17 delivery. The patient's access to such procedure may not be 18 restricted or refused unless the procedure is determined by
19 the attending physician to be medically contraindicated. A
20 physician, hospital, or birth center may not require a patient
21 to provide advance notice or special consent in order to
22 obtain epidural anesthesia during labor and delivery.

23 Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999, 24 and shall apply to policies and contracts issued or renewed on 25 or after that date.
