6 the name of all complainants; providing that 7 nothing in the section shall limit the right of 8 a law enforcement or correctional agency to 9 discipline or pursue criminal charges against 10 an officer; amending s. 112.533, F.S.; revising 11 provisions with respect to the receipt and 12 processing of complaints to provide for certain 13 recorded statements; providing for the agency
14 head to act in the capacity of complainant
15 under certain circumstances; amending s.
16 112.534, F.S.; providing a penalty for failure
17 to comply with part VI of chapter 112, F.S.; 18 providing definitions; providing an effective
19 date.

20
21 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

22
23 Section 1. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section
24 112.532, Florida Statutes, 1998 Supplement, is amended and 25 paragraph (j) is added to subsection (1) of said section to 26 read:

27 112.532 Law enforcement officers' and correctional 28 officers' rights.--All law enforcement officers and 29 correctional officers employed by or appointed to a law
30 enforcement agency or a correctional agency shall have the 31 following rights and privileges:

1 (1) RIGHTS OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND
2 CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS WHILE UNDER INVESTIGATION.--Whenever a
3 law enforcement officer or correctional officer is under 4 investigation and subject to interrogation by members of his 5 or her agency for any reason which could lead to disciplinary 6 action, demotion, or dismissal, such interrogation shall be 7 conducted under the following conditions:

8 (d) The law enforcement officer or correctional 9 officer under investigation shall be informed of the nature of 10 the investigation prior to any interrogation, and he or she 11 shall be informed of the name of all complainants, unless as 12 provided in s. 112.533(2)(a), the originating complainant
13 alleges criminal misconduct on behalf of the officer and 14 declines to be named and the agency head is acting as the 15 complainant.

16 (j) Notwithstanding the rights and privileges provided
17 by this section, nothing in this section shall limit the right
18 of an agency to discipline or to pursue criminal charges
19 against an officer.

20 Section 2. Paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 21 112.533, Florida Statutes, 1998 Supplement, is amended to 22 read:

23 112.533 Receipt and processing of complaints.--

24 (2)(a) A complaint filed against a law enforcement
25 officer or correctional officer with a law enforcement agency 26 or correctional agency and all information obtained pursuant 27 to the investigation by the agency of such complaint shall be 28 confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1)
29 until the investigation ceases to be active, or until the 30 agency head or the agency head's designee provides written 31

1 notice to the officer who is the subject of the complaint,
2 either personally or by mail, that the agency has either:
3 1. Concluded the investigation with a finding not to 4 proceed with disciplinary action or to file charges; or 5 2. Concluded the investigation with a finding to 6 proceed with disciplinary action or to file charges.
7
8 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the officer who is 9 the subject of the complaint that could lead to suspension, 10 demotion, or dismissal may review, upon the written request of 11 the officer, the complaint and all written or otherwise
12 recorded statements made by or on behalf of the complainant
13 and witnesses immediately prior to the beginning of the 14 investigative interview. If a witness to a complaint is 15 incarcerated in a correctional facility and may be under the 16 supervision of, or have contact with, the officer under 17 investigation, only the names and written or otherwise
18 recorded statements of the complainant and nonincarcerated
19 witnesses may be reviewed by the officer under investigation
20 immediately prior to the beginning of the investigative 21 interview. All statements of the complainant and the officer 22 who is the subject of the complaint shall be recorded and 23 under oath. However, if an originating complainant alleges 24 criminal misconduct on behalf of an officer and declines to be 25 named, the complaint may be filed by the agency head who may 26 act in the capacity of complainant.

27 Section 3. Section 112.534, Florida Statutes, is 28 amended to read:

29 112.534 Failure to comply.--

30 (1) If any law enforcement agency or correctional 31 agency fails to comply with the requirements of this part, a

1 law enforcement officer or correctional officer employed by or 2 appointed to such agency who is personally injured by such 3 failure to comply may apply directly to the circuit court of 4 the county wherein such agency is headquartered and 5 permanently resides for an injunction to restrain and enjoin
6 such violation of the provisions of this part and to compel
7 the performance of the duties imposed by this part.

8 (2)(a) If, during the course of an interrogation
9 governed by this part, the interrogator willfully and 10 knowingly refuses, with corrupt intent, to comply with the 11 requirements of this part, that person shall, upon conviction, 12 be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as 13 provided for in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

14 (b) For the purposes of this subsection, the term:

15 1. "Willfully and knowingly refuses" means
16 circumstances where either the officer being interrogated or 17 his or her representative objects to a specific violation of 18 this part and the interrogator continues the violation after 19 such objection is made.

20 2. "Corrupt intent" means done with knowledge that the 21 act is wrongful and with improper motives.

22 Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a
23 law.

HOUSE SUMMARY

Revises provisions of law under Part VI of chapter 112, F.S., relating to law enforcement and correctional officers to:

1. Provide an exception to the requirement of informing the officer under investigation of the name of all complainants when the originating complainant alleges criminal misconduct on behalf of the officer and declines to be named and the agency head is acting as the complainant.

2. Provide that nothing in s. 112.532, F.S., relating to law enforcement officers' and correctional officers' rights shall be construed to limit the right of a law enforcement or correctional agency from disciplining or pursuing criminal charges against the officer.

3. Revise provisions with respect to the receipt and processing of complaints to provide for described recorded statements and to provide for the agency head to act in the capacity of complainant under described circumstances.

4. Provide a first degree misdemeanor penalty for willful and knowing refusal, with corrupt intent, to comply with the requirements of Part VI of chapter 112, F.S.

See bill for details.
