18 In order to assess an additional amount for safety and 19 security purposes, a community college board of trustees must 20 provide written justification to the State Board of Community
21 Colleges based on criteria approved by the local board of 22 trustees, including but not limited to criteria such as local 23 crime data and information, and strategies for the 24 implementation of local safety plans. For 1999-2000, each 25 community college is authorized to increase the sum of the 26 matriculation fee and technology fee by not more than 5% of 27 the sum of the matriculation and local safety and security 28 fees in 1998-99. However, no fee in 1999-2000 shall exceed 29 the prescribed statutory limit. Should a college decide to 30 increase the matriculation fee, the funds raised by increasing 31 the matriculation fee must be expended solely for additional
