19 that there has been a marked decline in civility and honesty
20 in both state and national politics; that truthful campaigning
21 has been replaced by a series of distortions, 22 mischaracterizations, and untruths. Such tactics have the 23 effect of stifling, overwhelming, or chilling the 24 dissemination of truthful information; and that the 25 dissemination of truthful information is the single most

29 persons accountable for the truthfulness of their statements
30 regarding candidates.
