Senate Amendment

On page 83, lines 14-18, delete those lines

and insert:

Section 21. In order to inform the public and to deter and prevent crime, the Office of the Governor shall place public service announcements in areas having the highest representation in the correctional system explaining the penalties provided in this act. In addition, the Office of the Governor shall place public service announcements directed to areas of the state which have the highest rate of felony offenses to maximize the preventative aspects of advertising the penalties imposed by this act. Appropriations designated in Chapter 99-12, Laws of Florida, for public service announcements, shall also be used to fund the public service announcements required in this section.
