I. FINAL ACTION STATUS:

HB 2279 passed the House on April 26, 1999, but died in the Senate Committee on Fiscal Policy on April 30, 1999.

II. SUMMARY:

This bill creates the Environmental Law Enforcement Trust Fund in the Department of Environmental Protection. The need for this new fund results from the proposed legislation (CS/HB 2145) which implements the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission as required by Constitution Revision #5.

CS/HB 2145 transfers marine law enforcement functions from the Department of Environmental Protection to the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission. However, sufficient responsibilities and funding are retained in the Department of Environmental Protection to warrant a separate trust fund to account for environmental law enforcement activities.

HB 2279 takes effect July 1, 1999.
