2An act relating to public records; providing an exemption from public records requirements for business records of a business owner subject to a governmental condemning authority in an eminent domain proceeding; providing an expiration date; providing a finding of public necessity; providing a contingent effective date.1011121314151617181919101011121314151616171819191010101112131415161617181919101111121314151616161718191910111111121314151616171819191011101112131415151616171819191919<	1	A bill to be entitled
 4 business records of a business owner subject to 5 a governmental condemning authority in an 6 eminent domain proceeding; providing an 7 expiration date; providing a finding of public 8 necessity; providing a contingent effective 9 date. 10 11 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 12 13 Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a 14 business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an 15 offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida 16 Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 17 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 19 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records 19 would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive 20 position of the person providing such records and if the 21 person providing such records requests that such records be 22 held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to 23 prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, 24 members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; 25 however, such records shall remain exempt from further 26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 recensity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	2	An act relating to public records; providing an a governmental condemning authority in an eminent domain proceeding; providing an expiration date; providing a finding of public necessity; providing a contingent effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	3	exemption from public records requirements for eminent domain proceeding; providing an expiration date; providing a finding of public necessity; providing a contingent effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	4	business records of a business owner subject to expiration date; providing a finding of public necessity; providing a contingent effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	5	a governmental condemning authority in an
8 necessity; providing a contingent effective date. 9 date. 10 11 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 12 13 Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a 14 business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an 15 offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida 16 Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 17 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 18 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records 19 would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive 20 position of the person providing such records and if the 21 person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to 23 prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further 26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	б	eminent domain proceeding; providing an
 9 date. 10 11 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 12 13 Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a 14 business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an 15 offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida 16 Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 17 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records 19 would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive 20 position of the person providing such records and if the 21 person providing such records requests that such records be 22 held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to 23 prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, 24 members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; 25 however, such records shall remain exempt from further 26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	7	expiration date; providing a finding of public
10111213131414151516171819191010111213141415151617181919101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure provisions of Section1119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records1919101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records1910.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records101122101123111213141515161717181919191011111213141515161717181919191911 <td>8</td> <td>necessity; providing a contingent effective</td>	8	necessity; providing a contingent effective
11Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:121314131414151617181919101111121314141515161718191919101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19111919101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records101119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records be1010111213141515161717181919191011111112131415151616171718	9	date.
1213Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a14business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an15offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida16Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section1724(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section18119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive20position of the person providing such records and if the21person providing such records requests that such records be22held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to23prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General,24members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies;25however, such records shall remain exempt from further26disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government27Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida28Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and29reenacted by the Legislature.30Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public31necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	10
13Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a14business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an15offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida16Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section1724(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section18119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive20position of the person providing such records and if the21person providing such records requests that such records be22held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to23prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General,24members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies;25however, such records shall remain exempt from further26disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government27Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida28Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and29reenacted by the Legislature.30Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public31necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	11	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
 business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	12
15offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida16Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section1724(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section18119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive20position of the person providing such records and if the21person providing such records requests that such records be22held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to23prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General,24members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies;25however, such records shall remain exempt from further26disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government27Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida28Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and29reenacted by the Legislature.30Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public31necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	13	Section 1. Business records provided by the owner of a
16Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section1724(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section18119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records19would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive20position of the person providing such records and if the21person providing such records requests that such records be22held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to23prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General,24members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies;25however, such records shall remain exempt from further26disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government27Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida28Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and29reenacted by the Legislature.30Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public31necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	14	business to a governmental condemning authority as part of an
 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	15	offer of business damages pursuant to section 73.015, Florida
 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	16	Statutes, are exempt from the disclosure provisions of Section would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	17	24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution and section position of the person providing such records and if the person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	18	119.07(1), Florida Statutes, if the disclosure of such records person providing such records requests that such records be held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	19	would be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; however, such records shall remain exempt from further disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a 	20	position of the person providing such records and if the 23 prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General, 24 members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; 25 however, such records shall remain exempt from further 26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	21	person providing such records requests that such records be
24 members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies; 25 however, such records shall remain exempt from further 26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	22	held exempt. Nothing in this section shall be construed to
25 however, such records shall remain exempt from further 26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	23	prevent inspection of such records by the Attorney General,
26 disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government 27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	24	members of the Legislature, and interested state agencies;
27 Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida 28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	25	however, such records shall remain exempt from further
28 Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and 29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	26	disclosure. This exemption is subject to the Open Government
29 reenacted by the Legislature. 30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	27	Sunset Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida
30 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	28	Statutes, and expires on October 2, 2004, unless reviewed and
31 necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a	29	reenacted by the Legislature.
	30	Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
1	31	necessity that the business records of an owner who provides a
±		1

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

SB 2350

1	governmental condemning authority business records as part of
2	a presuit offer of business damages in an eminent domain
3	proceeding be exempt in order to encourage presuit
4	settlements. Furthermore, the Legislature finds that business
5	records are of a sensitive nature and the disclosure of such
6	information could place the business at a competitive
7	disadvantage should these sensitive business records be
8	revealed to the public.
9	Section 3. This act shall take effect on the effective
10	date of SB 940 or similar legislation relating to eminent
11	domain, and shall not take effect if that legislation does not
12	become a law.
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
	2
COD	ING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.