14	Any federal lands located within the described boundaries of
15	the district are excluded from the district.
16	Section 2. District; powersThe district is an
17	independent special fire control district under chapter 191,
18	Florida Statutes. The provisions of that chapter, specifically
19	including sections 191.006 and 191.008, Florida Statutes,
20	prescribing general and special powers, apply to the district,
21	but if any provision of that chapter conflicts with this act,
22	the provisions of this act control.
23	Section 3. Board of fire commissionersThe business
24	and affairs of the district shall be conducted and
25	administered by a board of seven commissioners. Two
26	commissioners shall be elected from each precinct in the
27	district, and one commissioner shall be elected at large. Each
28	member of the board must, at the time of qualifying for, and
29	during the term of, office, be an elector of Walton County, a
30	resident of the district, and, if elected from a precinct, a

1 number a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary-treasurer annually in October. Such officers shall have the duties 2 3 usually pertaining to like officers. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their service, but they are 4 5 entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred in the conduct б of their official duties. Each member of the board, before 7 entering upon the duties of that office, shall execute to the 8 Governor for the benefit of the district a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $1,000, conditioned to faithfully perform 9 the duties of that office and to account for all funds of the 10 11 district which come into his or her hands. The premium of the bond shall be paid from funds of the district. 12 Section 4. Fire commissioners; terms of office; 13 vacancies. -- Each fire commissioner shall serve a term of 4 14 years and is eligible for reelection. Each member of the board 15 of fire commissioners serving on the effective date of this 16 17 act shall continue to hold office until the expiration of the term to which he or she was elected. If an office becomes 18 19 vacant, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the board for the unexpired portion of 20 21 the term. A person appointed to fill a vacancy must meet the same qualifications as candidates for election. 22 Section 5. Meetings; minutes. -- A record shall be kept 23 24 of all meetings of the board. In any meeting, the concurrence of a majority of the members of the board is necessary to any 25 action by the board. Meetings of the board and minutes of 26 27 meetings are open to the public at all times. 28 Section 6. Financial matters.--29 The board may levy an ad valorem tax on taxable (1)property within the district of up to 1 mill. The ad valorem 30 tax authorized by this subsection shall become a lien on the 31

1 property so assessed until paid. If it becomes delinquent, it is subject to the same penalties, charges, and fees for 2 3 enforcement and collection as county ad valorem taxes and shall be enforced and collected as provided by law. The 4 5 district's ad valorem tax shall be a first lien superior in б dignity to all other liens except liens for county ad valorem 7 taxes. 8 (2) The board may accept gifts and donations and may 9 carry on community projects for fund-raising purposes. 10 (3) The fiscal year of the district shall run from 11 October 1 until September 30 of the following year. 12 Section 7. Taxes; collection.--The board of commissioners shall notify the Walton County Property 13 Appraiser annually of taxes that the board has imposed on each 14 parcel of property within the district, and the Property 15 Appraiser shall include these taxes in the notice of proposed 16 17 property taxes and adopted non-ad valorem assessments for the properties within the district. 18 19 Section 8. Indebtedness.--(1) The board of fire commissioners may borrow money 20 21 for the purposes of the district. The total principal and interest that may be outstanding may not exceed 50 percent of 22 the total assessment roll. The board may pledge collections on 23 24 such roll and may give tax anticipation notes, which shall be the sole security for such loans. Neither the district nor any 25 commissioner is personally liable for such a loan or any part 26 27 thereof. If there is a pledge of collections on the district assessment roll, it is the duty of the board, upon collection 28 of the roll so pledged, to apply the first proceeds thereof to 29 30 the payment of principal and interest on the loan for which 31 the assessment was pledged.
