17	and insert: such termination. However, if termination was the
18	result of failure to pay any required premium or contribution
19	and such nonpayment of premium was due to acts of an employer
20	or group contract holder other than the employee or individual
21	subscriber, written application for the contract must be made
22	and the first premium must be paid not later than 63 days
23	after notice of termination is mailed by the organization or
24	the employer, whichever is earlier, to the employee's or
25	individual's last address as shown by the record of the 26	organization or the employer, whichever is applicable. In such 27	case of termination due to non-payment of premium by the
28	employer or group contract holder, the premium for the
29	converted contract may not exceed the rate for the prior group
30	coverage for the period of coverage under the converted
