An act relating to Palm Beach County; providing for the relief of Jennifer Eubanks-Black, David Black, John Eubanks, and Ivy Dawn Eubanks, for injuries and damages sustained due to the negligence of the county; providing an effective date.

WHEREAS, on the night of March 19, 1992, Carolyn Eubanks, a 44-year-old grandmother, was driving east on Airport Road in Palm Beach County, accompanied by her 20-year-old daughter, Jennifer Eubanks-Black, and Jennifer's two infant sons, Todd Allen Black and William Anthony Black, and

WHEREAS, at the intersection of Airport Road and Sam Senter Road, Mrs. Eubanks, despite the fact that she was traveling at or below the posted speed limit, was unable to negotiate the sudden and unexpected turn, and, unable to brake sufficiently, she crashed into and through a previously damaged guardrail, and her vehicle plunged into a canal, and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Eubanks and her two grandchildren drowned, and Jennifer Black escaped, and

WHEREAS, a trial proceeded against Palm Beach County, alleging failure to properly warn against an upcoming hazard and failure to implement recommended changes at the intersection, and

WHEREAS, the evidence introduced at trial included documents indicating that the intersection where the accident occurred was dangerous and had been characterized by county employees and design professionals as "substandard," and

1 WHEREAS, evidence also revealed that recommendations
2 and plans for improving the safety of the intersection had 3 been approved by Palm Beach County but had never been 4 implemented and that the precautions contained in the approved 5 plan would have prevented this tragedy, and

6 WHEREAS, in June 1996, a jury returned a verdict
7 allocating $8.1 million in damages among Jennifer Eubanks
8 Black; David Black, the father of the decedent children; John 9 Eubanks, the widower of Carolyn Eubanks; and Ivy Dawn Eubanks, 10 Carolyn Eubanks' youngest daughter, and

11 WHEREAS, in light of a finding of comparative 12 negligence, a final judgment in the amount of $810,000 was 13 entered against Palm Beach County, and

14 WHEREAS, the county has paid $200,000, the limit
15 allowed under the sovereign immunity statute, which leaves a 16 balance owed of $610,000, and

17 WHEREAS, after payment of the sovereign immunity limit
18 of $200,000, the parties agreed to settle all outstanding
19 claims in this matter for $350,000, to be paid by Palm Beach 20 County pursuant to a claim bill, and

21 WHEREAS, the $350,000 settlement amount will be 22 apportioned as follows: for Jennifer Eubanks-Black in the 23 amount of $259,259.25; for John Eubanks in the amount of 24 $43,209.88; for Ivy Dawn Eubanks in the amount of $43,209.88;
25 and for David Black in the amount of $4,320.99, and

26 WHEREAS, Palm Beach County has agreed to support and 27 assist in the passage of such a claim bill, NOW, THEREFORE,
