House Joint Resolution

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the State Constitution, relating to finance and taxation, to allow the Legislature by general law to exclude from assessed value for ad valorem tax purposes value attributable to improvements made for purposes of disaster preparedness.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the State Constitution is agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE VII
FINANCE AND TAXATION

SECTION 3. Taxes; exemptions.--

(a) All property owned by a municipality and used exclusively by it for municipal or public purposes shall be exempt from taxation. A municipality, owning property outside the municipality, may be required by general law to make payment to the taxing unit in which the property is located.
Such portions of property as are used predominantly for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes may be exempted by general law from taxation.
(b) There shall be exempt from taxation, cumulatively, to every head of a family residing in this state, household goods and personal effects to the value fixed by general law,

CODING: Words ~~stricken~~ are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 not less than one thousand dollars, and to every widow or 2 widower or person who is blind or totally and permanently
3 disabled, property to the value fixed by general law not less 4 than five hundred dollars.

5 (c) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of 6 its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this 7 subsection and general law, grant community and economic 8 development ad valorem tax exemptions to new businesses and 9 expansions of existing businesses, as defined by general law.
10 Such an exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the 11 county or municipality, and only after the electors of the 12 county or municipality voting on such question in a referendum 13 authorize the county or municipality to adopt such ordinances.
14 An exemption so granted shall apply to improvements to real 15 property made by or for the use of a new business and 16 improvements to real property related to the expansion of an 17 existing business and shall also apply to tangible personal 18 property of such new business and tangible personal property 19 related to the expansion of an existing business. The amount 20 or limits of the amount of such exemption shall be specified 21 by general law. The period of time for which such exemption 22 may be granted to a new business or expansion of an existing 23 business shall be determined by general law. The authority to 24 grant such exemption shall expire ten years from the date of 25 approval by the electors of the county or municipality, and 26 may be renewable by referendum as provided by general law.

27 (d) By general law and subject to conditions specified 28 therein, there may be granted an ad valorem tax exemption to a 29 renewable energy source device and to real property on which 30 such device is installed and operated, to the value fixed by 31 general law not to exceed the original cost of the device, and

1 for the period of time fixed by general law not to exceed ten 2 years.

3 (e) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of 4 its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this 5 subsection and general law, grant historic preservation ad
6 valorem tax exemptions to owners of historic properties. This 7 exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or 8 municipality. The amount or limits of the amount of this 9 exemption and the requirements for eligible properties must be 10 specified by general law. The period of time for which this 11 exemption may be granted to a property owner shall be 12 determined by general law.

13 (f) By general law and subject to conditions specified 14 therein, there may be granted an ad valorem tax exemption for 15 value attributable to improvements made for purposes of 16 disaster preparedness.

17 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the following statement be 18 placed on the ballot:

19 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

20 ARTICLE VII, SECTION 3

21 EXEMPTION FOR DISASTER PREPAREDNESS.--Proposing an 22 amendment to the State Constitution to allow an ad valorem tax 23 exemption for property value attributable to improvements made 24 for purposes of disaster preparedness.
