18 and insert in lieu thereof: employ all welcome center staff.
19 On or before June 30, 1999, all welcome center staff shall be 20 offered employment through the direct-support organization at 21 the same salary such staff received through the Department of 22 Transportation, prior to July 1, 1999, but with the same 23 benefits provided by the direct-support organization to the 24 organization's employees. Welcome center employees shall have 25 until January 1, 2000, to choose to be employed by the 26 direct-support organization or to remain employed by the 27 state. Those employees who choose to remain employed by the 28 state may continue to be assigned by the Department of 29 Transportation to the welcome centers until June 30, 2001.
30 Upon vacating a career service position by a career service
31 employee, the position shall be abolished. The agreement

Amendment No. 1 (for drafter's use only)

1 between the Department of Transportation and the Florida
 2 Commission on Tourism concerning the funding of positions in 3 the welcome centers shall continue until all welcome center
 4 employees are employed by the direct-support organization, or 5 until those employees choosing to remain employed by the state
 6 have found other state employment, or until June 30, 2001,
 7 whichever occurs first.
