Senator Jones moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

and insert: Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in any county as defined in s. 125.011(1), the board of county commissioners may, in consultation with the County Expressway Authority, by ordinance alter or abolish existing tolls and currently approved increases thereto if the board provides a local source of funding to the county expressway system for transportation in an amount sufficient to replace revenues necessary to meet bond obligations secured by such tolls and increases.
