- (3) COMMUNITY AFFAIRS YEAS 10 NAYS 0

I. FINAL ACTION STATUS:

The companion measure, CS/SB 156, 1st Engrossed, passed the Legislature and became Chapter 99-156, Laws of Florida.

II. SUMMARY:

A “strike everything” amendment is traveling with the bill. The amendment: exempts temporary 3-day permits issued to non-profit organizations from the 500' restriction; authorizes hearings under standard city and county zoning authority; and, makes the attempt to purchase cigarettes and alcohol unlawful.

The bill, as introduced, provides that a new location for on-premises consumption of alcoholic beverages may not be located within 500 feet of a school unless the county or municipal government approves the location as promoting the public health, safety and general welfare of the community.

The bill has no significant impact on state revenue.

III. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

A. PRESENT SITUATION:

The Beverage Law consists of Chapter 561, relating to administration; chapter 562, F.S., relating to enforcement; chapters 563, 564, and 565, F.S., relating to beer, wine and liquor; and chapters 567 and 568, F.S., relating to wet and dry county elections. The Beverage Law requires a person to be licensed prior to engaging in the business of manufacturing, bottling, distributing, selling, or in any way dealing in the commerce of alcoholic beverages.

The Beverage Law grants broad authority to the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco [DABT], Department of Business and Professional Regulation, to administer and enforce the Beverage Law and local governments are prohibited from enacting any ordinance that regulates or prohibits those activities or business transactions of a licensee regulated by the DABT. [See ss. 561.02, 562.45, F.S.] Certain areas of responsibility have, however, been delegated to counties or municipalities by statute. Specifically, s. 562.45, F.S., grants zoning authority, as well as, authority to enact ordinances regulating the type of entertainment, hours of operation and conduct permitted in licensed beverage establishments, including bottle clubs, to counties and municipalities.

Section 286.0115, F.S., provides for quasi-judicial proceedings on local government land use matters. Specifically, s. 286.0115, F.S., prohibits a "local public official" from ex parte communication and requires any person at the request of a party or party-intervenor, to be sworn in as a witness, to be subject to cross-examination by other parties or party-intervenors, and to be qualified as an expert witness, if the person is attesting to be an expert. This section also outlines procedures that remove the presumption of prejudice arising from ex parte communications and provides that any such communications be noted in a public forum and incorporated as part of the official record of the proceedings.

Section 125.66(4), F.S., sets forth the enactment procedure for zoning ordinances where the proposed ordinance changes the list of permitted, conditional, or prohibited uses within a zoning category, or the proposed ordinance contains a county initiated change to the actual zoning map designation of a parcel of land. Section 166.041(3)(c), F.S., imposes these same requirements on the adoption of zoning ordinances by municipalities.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

This bill, as introduced, provides that a new retail location [after July 1, 1999] for on-premises consumption of alcoholic beverages may not be located within 500 feet of the real property that comprises a public or private elementary school, middle school, or secondary school unless the county or municipal government approves the location, under quasi-judicial hearings for land use decisions held pursuant to s. 286.0115, F.S., as promoting the public health, safety and general welfare of the community.

V. CONSEQUENCES OF ARTICLE VII, SECTION 18 OF THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION:

A. APPLICABILITY OF THE MANDATES PROVISION:

This bill does not require counties or municipalities to spend funds or to take any action requiring the expenditure of funds.

The plain language of the amendment to s. 562.45(2)(a) contained in this bill does not grant a right to a hearing under s. 286.0115, rather it provides an option that the county or municipality may choose to utilize. Further, even if this were to be considered a conditional mandate, it would be exempt since the fiscal impact would fail to surpass the threshold established for determining the estimated fiscal impact on counties and municipalities in the aggregate.

B. REDUCTION OF REVENUE RAISING AUTHORITY:

This bill does not reduce the authority that municipalities or counties have to raise revenues in the aggregate.

C. REDUCTION OF STATE TAX SHARED WITH COUNTIES AND MUNICIPALITIES:

This bill does not reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

VI. COMMENTS:

None.

VII. AMENDMENTS OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES:

Committee on Regulated Services

A 'strike everything' amendment was adopted by the Committee on Regulated Services at its meeting on March 11, 1999. The amendment incorporates language which was added to the Senate Bill and, also, makes a clarifying change. The amendment:

- ▶ Makes it unlawful [second degree misdemeanor] for a person under 21 years of age to purchase or attempt to purchase alcoholic beverages;
- ▶ Makes it unlawful [civil penalty] for a person under 18 years of age to attempt to purchase any tobacco product from a person or a vending machine;
- ▶ Removes the reference for a hearing under s. 286.0115, F.S., and replaces with references to the more appropriate statutes providing for the enactment of zoning ordinances for counties and municipalities [s.125.66(4) for counties and s.166.041(3)(c) for municipalities]; and

- ▶ Clarifies that the prohibition against siting an alcoholic beverage establishment within 500 feet of a school does not apply to the issuance of temporary licenses issued to certain non-profit organizations.

Chronology of Events

HB 673 passed both the Business Regulation and Consumer Affairs Committee on March 22, 1999, and the Community Affairs Committee on March 30, 1999, unanimously and without further amendment. The bill was placed on the Special Order Calendar and one amendment, which exempted restaurants which derive at least 51% of their gross revenue from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages, was adopted. On April 13, 1999, the companion bill, CS/SB 156, was substituted for HB 673, was amended to conform to HB 673, and passed the House with 106 Yea votes and 4 Nay votes. On April 21, 1999, the Senate concurred with the House amendment to CS/SB 156 and passed the bill with 34 Yea votes and 0 Nay votes. On May 13, 1999, the bill was approved by the Governor and became Chapter 99-156, Laws of Florida.
