18 and insert in lieu thereof: of the state. The Legislature
19 finds that the State Constitution requires the state to 20 provide the opportunity to obtain a high-quality education.
21 The Legislature further finds that a student should not be 22 compelled, against the wishes of the student's parent or 23 guardian, to remain in a school found by the state to be 24 failing for 2 years. The Legislature shall make available 25 opportunity scholarships in order to give parents and 26 guardians the opportunity for their children to attend a
27 public school that is performing satisfactorily or to attend
28 an eligible private school when the parent or guardian chooses
29 to apply the equivalent of the public education funds 30 generated by his or her child to the cost of tuition in the 31 eligible private school as provided in paragraph (6)(a).
