I. SUMMARY:

CS/HB 1035 repeals s. 43.29, F.S., which implements the provisions of Article V, Section 11(d) of the Florida Constitution creating judicial nominating commissions (JNC).

CS/HB 1035 creates s. 43.291, F.S., which provides for the composition of the JNC's as follows: Three appointed to 4 year terms by the Florida Bar, four appointed to 4 year terms by the Governor, and one each appointed to 2 year terms by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The bill also allows the Governor to appoint alternate members who must reside in counties in which no other member of the affected JNC resides. The alternate members, if appointed, shall serve in place of a single appointee of the Governor in any case in which the affected JNC is filling a county court vacancy, and shall participate as a nonvoting member concerning circuit court vacancies.

The bill prohibits a JNC member from holding a judicial or legislative office, and prohibits a state legislator from serving on a JNC. It also makes a JNC member ineligible for appointment to any state judicial office during that member's period of service on the JNC and for a 2 year period after such term of membership.

The bill abolishes the offices of those JNC members appointed pursuant to s. 43.29(1)(b) or (1)(c) prior to July 1, 2000 and replaces those members with members appointed pursuant to new s. 43.291(1)(b). This will remove those persons appointed by the Governor and by the six JNC members appointed by the Governor and Florida Bar. Those persons who do not complete a 4 year term because of the effects of the bill may be reappointed to a new term.

The bill allows for the suspension of any JNC member for cause by the Governor and for the member's removal by the Senate.

The bill requires appointing authorities to seek to ensure diversity among JNC members, and requires the appointing entities to report the results of their diversity efforts to the Governor, Speaker of the House, and President of the Senate each year.

The bill appropriates $25,000 to the state courts' system budget to cover travel and training costs for JNC members. The bill does not otherwise appear to have any fiscal impact on state or local government.

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Section 43.29, F.S., implements the provisions of Article V, Section 11(d) of the Florida Constitution. Under the statute, each JNC consists of nine members. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar appoints three members who must be Florida lawyers practicing in the affected jurisdiction. The Governor appoints three members who must reside in the affected jurisdiction or in the judicial circuit. These six members appoint three additional members who must not be members of The Florida Bar and who must reside in the affected jurisdiction. In addition, one person from each group appointed by the Florida Bar, the Governor, and their appointees must be drawn from a racial or ethnic minority group or be a woman. Therefore, each JNC must consist of no less than three members who are either of an ethnic or racial minority or female.

On July 7, 1995, in Mallory v. Harkness, 895 F.Supp. 1556 (S.D. Fla. 1995), the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida held s. 43.29(1)(a), F.S., unconstitutional as a race/gender based quota, finding that it violated the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. The court permanently enjoined enforcement of s. 43.29(1)(a), F.S., against the Mallory plaintiff.

Members of a JNC may not be justices nor judges. s. 43.29, F.S. Members of a JNC may hold public office other than judicial office. Id. A member of a JNC may not be appointed to state judicial office in the territory or jurisdiction in which that member makes nominations, either during the member's 4-year term or any time less than 2 years after the expiration of the member's 4-year term. Id. Members may not serve consecutive 4-year terms and may be suspended by the Governor and removed by the Senate in a manner consistent with s. 7, Art. IV, Fla. Const. Id.

In its final report, the Article V Task Force recommended the elimination of language relating to the racial or gender composition of nominating commissions. However, the Article V Task Force also recommend that this language be replaced with language suggestive of the aspirations reflected in the current statutes with respect to race and gender diversity. The Florida Bar approves such a change.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

CS/HB 1035 creates s. 43.291, F.S., which provides for the composition of the JNC's. Each JNC will be comprised of 9 members. Three appointed to 4 year terms by the Florida Bar, four appointed to 4 year terms by the Governor, and 1 each appointed to 2 year terms by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The bill also allows the Governor to appoint alternate members who must reside in counties in which no other member of the affected JNC resides. The alternate members, if appointed, shall serve in place of a single appointee of the Governor in any case in which the affected JNC is filling a county court vacancy, and shall participate as a nonvoting member concerning circuit court vacancies.

The bill prohibits a JNC member from holding a judicial or legislative office, and prohibits a state legislator from serving on a JNC. It also makes a JNC member ineligible for appointment to any state judicial office during that member's period of service on the JNC and for a 2 year period after such term of membership.

The bill abolishes the offices of those JNC members appointed pursuant to s. 43.29(1)(b) or (1)(c) prior to July 1, 2000 and replaces those members with members appointed pursuant to new s. 43.291(1)(b). This will remove those persons appointed by the Governor and the three members appointed by the six JNC members appointed by the Governor and Florida Bar. Those persons who do not complete a 4 year term because of the effects of the bill may be reappointed to a new term.

The bill allows for the suspension of any JNC member for cause by the Governor and that member's removal by the Senate.

The bill also requires appointing authorities to seek to ensure diversity among JNC members, and requires the appointing entities to report the results of their diversity efforts to the Governor, Speaker of the House, and President of the Senate.

The bill appropriates $25,000 to the state courts' system budget to cover travel and training costs for JNC members.

C. OTHER COMMENTS:

Section 4 of the bill refers to s. 112.0455(1), F.S. That section relates to the Drug-Free Workplace Act, and appears to have no relevance to HB 1035. Moreover, the references to subsections (1)(c) and (d) of the Act are incorrect, as section (1) does not have any subsections. It appears that the correct references are s. 43.291(1)(c) and (d), F.S., as created by the bill. The references intended by the sponsor should be clarified and this section corrected.

VI. AMENDMENTS OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES:

On March 29, 2000, the Committee on Judiciary adopted three amendments and made the bill a committee substitute. The amendments clarifies a reference to the Governor's removal authority, requires the Governor's Office to designate a person who will be responsible for diversity records of JNC applicants, and clarifies that the $25,000 appropriation shall be to the state courts budget for travel and training of JNC members.
