

By Representative Flanagan

1                                   A bill to be entitled
 2           An act relating to public records; creating s.
 3           106.0706, F.S.; providing exemptions from 4           public records requirements for personal
 5           identification numbers and computer security
 6           algorithms required to maintain the security of 7           information submitted or received through an 8           electronic filing system for campaign
 9           treasurer's reports; providing for future
 10          review and repeal; providing a finding of 11          public necessity; providing a contingent
 12          effective date.

13
 14 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

15
 16           Section 1.   Section 106.0706, Florida Statutes, is 17          created to read:

18                 106.0706 Electronic filing of campaign treasurer's 19                 reports; confidentiality of personal identification numbers
 20                 and computer security algorithms.--All personal identification 21                 numbers and computer security algorithms required to maintain 22                 the security of information submitted or received through the 23                 electronic filing system for campaign treasurer's reports 24                 established under s. 106.0705 are confidential and exempt from 25                 s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution.
 26                 This section is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review
 27                 Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall stand 28                 repealed on October 2, 2005, unless reviewed and saved from 29                 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

30                 Section 2.   The Legislature finds that it is a public 31                 necessity to exempt from public records requirements all

