15 Section 1. Subsection (1) of section 948.06, Florida
16 Statutes, is amended to read:

17 948.06 Violation of probation or community control;
18 revocation; modification; continuance; failure to pay
19 restitution or cost of supervision.--

20 (1) Whenever within the period of probation or 21 community control there are reasonable grounds to believe that 22 a probationer or offender in community control has violated
23 his or her probation or community control in a material 24 respect, any law enforcement officer who is aware of the 25 probationary or community control status of the probationer or 26 offender in community control or any parole or probation
27 supervisor may arrest or request any county or municipal law
28 enforcement officer to arrest such probationer or offender
29 without warrant wherever found and forthwith return him or her 30 to the court granting such probation or community control. Any 31 committing magistrate may issue a warrant, upon the facts

1 being made known to him or her by affidavit of one having 2 knowledge of such facts, for the arrest of the probationer or 3 offender, returnable forthwith before the court granting such 4 probation or community control. Any parole or probation
5 supervisor, any officer authorized to serve criminal process, 6 or any peace officer of this state is authorized to serve and 7 execute such warrant. Upon the filing of an affidavit alleging 8 a violation of probation or community control, and the 9 issuance of a warrant pursuant to s. 901.02(1), the 10 probationary period is tolled until the violation is proven
11 and the offender's probation or community control is revoked,
12 modified, or continued.The court, upon the probationer or 13 offender being brought before it, shall advise him or her of 14 such charge of violation and, if such charge is admitted to be 15 true, may forthwith revoke, modify, or continue the probation
16 or community control or place the probationer into a community
17 control program. If probation or community control is revoked, 18 the court shall adjudge the probationer or offender guilty of 19 the offense charged and proven or admitted, unless he or she 20 has previously been adjudged guilty, and impose any sentence 21 which it might have originally imposed before placing the 22 probationer on probation or the offender into community
23 control. If such violation of probation or community control
24 is not admitted by the probationer or offender, the court may 25 commit him or her or release him or her with or without bail 26 to await further hearing, or it may dismiss the charge of 27 probation or community control violation. If such charge is 28 not at that time admitted by the probationer or offender and 29 if it is not dismissed, the court, as soon as may be 30 practicable, shall give the probationer or offender an 31 opportunity to be fully heard on his or her behalf in person

1 or by counsel. After such hearing, the court may revoke, 2 modify, or continue the probation or community control or 3 place the probationer into community control. If such 4 probation or community control is revoked, the court shall 5 adjudge the probationer or offender guilty of the offense 6 charged and proven or admitted, unless he or she has 7 previously been adjudged guilty, and impose any sentence which 8 it might have originally imposed before placing the 9 probationer or offender on probation or into community
10 control. If, after a hearing, the court dismisses an affidavit 11 alleging a violation of probation or community control, the 12 offender's probation or community control shall continue as 13 previously imposed, notwithstanding any period the probation
14 or community control was tolled.

15 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2000.
