1 of Revenue provide unemployment tax administration and 2 collection services to the Agency for Workforce Innovation.
3 Upon entering into such contract with the Agency for Workforce
4 Innovation to provide unemployment tax administration and 5 collection services, the Department of Revenue may transfer 6 from the agency or is authorized to establish the number of 7 positions determined by that contract. The Department of 8 Revenue, as detailed in that contract, may exercise all and 9 any authority that is provided in law to the Division of 10 Unemployment Compensation to fulfill the duties of that 11 contract as the division's tax-administration and 12 collection-services agent including, but not limited to, the 13 promulgating of rules necessary to administer and collect 14 unemployment taxes. The Department of Revenue is authorized to 15 contract with the Department of Management Services or other 16 appropriate public or private entities for professional 17 services, regarding the development, revision, implementation, 18 maintenance, and monitoring of electronic data systems and 19 management information systems associated with the 20 administration and collection of unemployment taxes.
