B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Section 1: Section 316.193, F.S., provides penalties for any person driving under the influence (DUI). This section stipulates a minimum blood-alcohol and breath-alcohol level to be considered a violation of DUI. Penalties for DUI include increasing fines and imprisonment terms for each subsequent offense. A fourth or subsequent conviction of DUI, however, is punished as a third degree felony.

This section also provides penalties for any person who causes damage to property, serious bodily injury, or the death of another human being as a result of DUI. Penalties include:

- A first degree misdemeanor for damage to property or a person;
- A third degree felony for causing serious bodily injury; and
- A second degree felony for DUI manslaughter or, a first degree felony if the offender should have known of the crash or failed to render information or aid.

Any person who drives under the influence and is accompanied by a person under the age of 18 years with a blood-alcohol or breath-alcohol level of 0.20 or higher is punished with increasingly higher fines and imprisonment terms for each subsequent conviction.

Section 2: Section 327.35, F.S., provides penalties for boating under the influence. The penalties provided in this section are analogous to those provided in the DUI section of s. 316.193, F.S.

Section 3: Section 921.0022, F.S., provides a chart which ranks the severity of each offense provided in the Florida Statutes. Felony DUI is a Level 6 offense and DUI manslaughter is a Level 8 offense.

Section 4: Section 322.28, F.S., provides for periods of suspension or revocation of a person's driver's license for various offenses. For a violation of s. 316.193, F.S. which results in serious bodily injury or DUI manslaughter the period of revocation of the driver's license is for a minimum of three years.

Section 5: Section 947.146, F.S., provides for the state correctional system to release inmates guilty of certain violations when it is about to exceed 99 percent of its total capacity. Inmates guilty of DUI manslaughter, however, are ineligible for control release.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The bill provides for stricter penalties for DUI and BUI offenses. The bill amends ss. 316.193, 327.35, 921.0022, 322.28, and 947.146, F.S. See Section-By-Section analysis.

D. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

- Increasing the penalty for a fourth or subsequent DUI violation from a third to a second degree felony;
- Creating a penalty for DUI resulting in property damage valued at $10,000 or less as a first degree misdemeanor;
- Creating a penalty for property damage which exceeds $10,000 in value as a third degree felony;
- Increasing the penalty for causing serious bodily injury from a third to a second degree felony;
- Increasing the penalty for DUI manslaughter from a second to a first degree felony;
- Deleting the language which provides a first degree felony offense for any person who knew or should have known that an accident occurred; and if the person failed to give information or render aid;
- Decreasing the blood-alcohol and breath-alcohol level from 0.20 to 0.16 for driving under the influence while accompanied by a person under the age of 18 years; and

The department will require modifications to the driver license software system costing approximately $10,800.
