

By the Committee on Governmental Oversight and Productivity;
and Senator Webster

302-1884-00

1 A bill to be entitled
2 An act relating to community service; creating
3 the Florida Volunteer and Community Service Act
4 of 2000; providing legislative intent;
5 authorizing the state to establish policies and 6 procedures which provide for the expenditure of 7 funds to develop and facilitate initiatives
8 that encourage and reward volunteerism;
9 providing purposes of the act; authorizing the 10 Florida Commission on Community Service to 11 provide specified assistance for the 12 establishment and implementation of programs
13 pursuant to the act; amending s. 14.29, F.S.; 14 expanding the purposes of a required report of 15 the Florida Commission on Community Service;
16 providing an effective date.

17
18 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

19
20 Section 1. Florida Volunteer and Community Service Act
21 of 2000.--

22 (1) This act may be cited as the "Florida Volunteer
23 and Community Service Act of 2000."

24 (2) It is the intent of the Legislature to promote the 25 development of better communities by fostering greater civic 26 responsibility through volunteerism and service to the 27 community. Toward this end, the state may establish policies 28 and procedures which provide for the expenditure of funds to 29 develop and facilitate initiatives by public agencies,
30 scholastic institutions, private institutions, and individuals

31

1 that establish and implement programs that encourage and 2 reward volunteerism.

3 (3) Initiatives and programs developed pursuant to 4 this act shall have the following purposes and objectives:

5 (a) To place increased priority on citizen
6 participation and volunteerism as a means of addressing the 7 increasingly complex problems facing Florida's communities.

8 (b) To encourage local community leaders to implement
9 strategies that expand civic participation based on the fact
10 that volunteers represent a valuable and much-needed asset
11 within communities.

12 (c) To promote the concept and practice of corporate 13 citizenship, particularly in communities where such 14 initiatives are less developed.

15 (d) To build the enthusiasm, dedication, and combined
16 expertise of individual citizens and public and private 17 systems to find new and creative ways to effectively use 18 volunteerism and community service as a strategy to meet the 19 challenges facing Florida's communities both now and in the 20 future.

21 (e) To foster the alignment of community volunteer
22 resources with the goals of the state.

23 (f) To implement policy and administrative changes 24 that encourage and enable individuals to participate in 25 volunteer and community service activities.

26 (g) To encourage nonprofit agencies to interweave
27 volunteers into the fabric of their service delivery as a 28 means of increasing the effectiveness and efficiency of their 29 services.

30
31

1 (h) To support and promote volunteer service to all 2 citizens as an effective means to address community needs and 3 foster a collective commitment to lifelong community service.

4 (i) To recognize National Volunteer Week as a time to 5 encourage all citizens of Florida to participate in local 6 service projects.

7 (j) To recognize the value of individual volunteers
8 and volunteer and service organizations and programs and to 9 honor and celebrate the success of volunteers.

10 (k) To encourage volunteer and service efforts to 11 point children in the right direction and to endow them with 12 the character and competence they need to achieve success in 13 life. In order to accomplish this, the citizens of Florida 14 are encouraged to support America's Promise, the Alliance for 15 Youth, and Florida's Promise for Youth through volunteerism
16 and citizen service, to help ensure that children in Florida
17 have the following five fundamental resources in their lives:

18 1. An ongoing relationship with a caring adult.

19 2. Safe places with structured activities during 20 after-school hours.

21 3. A healthy start.

22 4. A marketable skill through effective education.

23 5. An opportunity to give back through community
24 service.

25 (4) The Florida Commission on Community Service may 26 assist agencies, institutions, and individuals by securing 27 assistance in the form of grants, gifts, or funds from the 28 public or private sector to be used in the implementation of 29 programs pursuant to this act. The Florida Commission on 30 Community Service may also authorize Volunteer Florida, Inc., 31 the commission's nonprofit direct-support organization, to

1 assist in securing training, technical assistance, and other
2 support needed to accomplish the intent and purposes of this 3 act.

4 Section 2. Paragraph (c) of subsection (7) of section
5 14.29, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

6 14.29 Florida Commission on Community Service.--

7 (7) The commission shall:

8 (c) Prepare an annual report detailing its activities
9 during the preceding year and, to the extent possible, compile 10 and synthesize any reports that it accepted on behalf of the 11 Governor. The commission's report shall be presented to the 12 Governor no later than January 15, with copies to the 13 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of 14 Representatives. The report shall also include specific 15 recommendations for any necessary legislative, administrative, 16 or regulatory reform, and the commission's assessment of the 17 state of volunteerism in Florida.

18 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 19 law.

21 STATEMENT OF SUBSTANTIAL CHANGES CONTAINED IN 22 COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
23 Senate Bill 1462

24 The Committee Substitute replaces the "Whereas" clauses with 25 an expanded section of legislative intent and provides that 26 the Commission include a assessment on the state of volunteer
27 activities as part of its annual report to the Governor.
