B. PRESENT SITUATION:

The 1996 Legislature passed chapter 96-507, Laws of Florida, creating the Gasparilla Island Bridge Authority (Authority). The Authority is an independent special taxing district in Lee and Charlotte Counties. The Authority owns and operates a toll bridge, called the Boca Grande Bridge and Causeway, which crosses Gasparilla Pass in Charlotte County. However, the southern two-thirds of Gasparilla Island is in Lee County. The Authority is managed by a nine-member board of supervisors. The Authority is authorized to fix and collect tolls from persons using the bridge and causeway system.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The bill codifies all prior special acts (Chapters 96-507 and 97-319, Laws of Florida) relating to the Gasparilla Island Bridge Authority (Authority) in Lee and Charlotte Counties into a single act. The bill does not make substantive modifications to the Authority.
