Senator Sullivan moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 97, lines 6-13, delete those lines

and insert:

(2) A university board of trustees shall consist of nine members. The Governor shall appoint eight members of the board of trustees, and the student body president of the university shall serve ex officio as a voting member of the board of trustees. Except for the boards of trustees of the University of Florida, Florida State University, and Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, the majority of members of a university board of trustees must reside within the service area of the university.

(3) Except for the student body president, trustees shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate in regular session.
