Representative(s) Hafner offered the following:

Amendment to Amendment (883505)

On page 3, lines 25-31, remove from the amendment: all of said lines and insert in lieu thereof: However, such organizations must comply with s. 24, Article I of the State Constitution. To this end, the Legislature specifically declares that faith-based organizations or community-based organizations which have entered into a contract with an agency or political subdivision of this state, or which accepts certificates, warrants, or other forms of disbursement described in subsection (1) are subject to the provisions of chapter 119 relating to public records and those provisions of chapter 286 relating to public meetings, with regard to programs or services funded under this act.
