and insert:

(4) Under this act, the state shall be a payor of last resort with regard to any net financial deficit. The direct-support organization authorized under section 288.1229, Florida Statutes, may not permit the security provided by the state pursuant to this act to be accessed to cover any net financial deficit indemnified by the state under the games support contracts until:

(a) The security provided by the local organizing committee pursuant to this act is fully expended and exhausted;

(b) Any security provided by any other person or entity is fully expended and exhausted;

(c) The limits of all available insurance policies covering the net financial deficit, or any expense or liability used in determining the net financial deficit, have
