(6) LIMITATION ON DUPLICATION OF GOVERNMENT

REGULATION.--It is the intent of the Legislature to eliminate duplication of regulatory authority over farm operations as expressed in this subsection. Except when the activity of a farm operation takes place within a wellfield protection area as defined in an ordinance adopted by a local government and as other wise provided for in this section and s. 487.051(2), and notwithstanding any other provision of law, a local government may not adopt any ordinance, rule, regulation, or policy to prohibit, restrict, regulate or otherwise limit an activity of a bona fide farm operation on land classified as agricultural land pursuant to s. 193.461, where such activity is regulated through implemented best management practices developed by the Department of Environmental Protection, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, or water
