BILL #: HB 2067 (PCB ER 00-04)

RELATING TO: Rulemaking Authority of the Department of State

SPONSOR(S): Committee on Election Reform and Representative Flanagan

TIED BILL(S):

ORIGINATING COMMITTEE(S)/COMMITTEE(S) OF REFERENCE:

- (1) ELECTION REFORM YEAS 9 NAYS 0
 - (2) GOVERNMENTAL RULES & REGULATIONS
 - (3)
 - (4)
 - (5)

I. SUMMARY:

Florida law establishes that a grant of rulemaking authority is necessary but not sufficient to allow an agency to adopt a rule; a specific law to be implemented is also required. As a result, state agencies are required to review the statutory authority they have for rulemaking and determine if sufficient authority exists for their rules or proposed rules.

For any rules or proposed rules that may be lacking in this authority, the Legislature shall, at the 2000 Regular Legislative Session, consider whether specific legislation authorizing the identified rules, or portions thereof, should be enacted.

This bill amends those sections of the Florida Statutes where a portion of the rule may exceed statutory authority permitted as determined by the Division of Elections within the Department of State. This rule authorization bill seeks to correct any deficiencies noted by establishing specific authority in statute. Please see Section II D., Section-By-Section Analysis, for details.

It is not anticipated that this legislation will have a financial impact beyond current appropriated funds.

The bill shall take effect upon becoming a law.

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Section 120.536(1), F.S., prescribes the rulemaking standard for agencies:

(1) A grant of rulemaking authority is necessary but not sufficient to allow an agency to adopt a rule; a specific law to be implemented is also required. An agency may adopt only rules that implement or interpret the specific powers and duties granted by the enabling statute. No agency shall have authority to adopt a rule only because it is reasonably related to the purpose of the enabling legislation and is not arbitrary and capricious or is within the agency's class of powers and duties, nor shall an agency have the authority to implement statutory provisions setting forth general legislative intent or policy. Statutory language granting rulemaking authority or generally describing the powers and functions of an agency shall be construed to extend no further than implementing or interpreting the specific powers and duties conferred by the same statute. (emphasis added)

Section 120.536(2)(b), F.S., was created to provide agencies with the opportunity to review existing rules for compliance with the rulemaking standard articulated in s. 120.536(1), F.S. Where an agency determined that a rule, or a portion thereof, exceeded the standard, the agency reported this rule to the Joint Administrative Procedures Committee (JAPC). Section 120.536(2)(b), F.S., provides that the Legislature shall, at the 2000 Regular Legislative Session, consider whether specific legislation authorizing the identified rules, or portions thereof, should be enacted.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:
