19 Section 104. (1) The Florida Corrections Commission
20 shall research the impact of the provisions of this act, 21 including the fiscal impact on the state courts, the 22 Department of Corrections, the Florida Parole Commission, 23 state prosecutors, and public defenders. The report shall 24 identify any potential savings resulting from the 25 reorganization of the Florida Parole Commission as provided in 26 this act, and shall compare such benefits and savings to the 27 estimated costs of providing mandatory postprison supervision 28 for all state prisoners released after July 1, 2001. In 29 addition, the report shall identify all benefits to public
30 safety that result from requiring mandatory postprison
31 probation for all state prisoners. In preparing its report,

Amendment No. 1 (for drafter's use only)

1 the Florida Corrections Commission shall consult with the 2 House Committee on Criminal Justice Appropriations, the House
