B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Chapter 212, F.S. provides that a sales and use tax be imposed on the retail sale, storage, or use of tangible personal property. Section 212.02(19), F.S. Chapter 212, F.S., also lists items and transactions that are exempt from sales and use tax. Under current law, sales of diapers and incontinence garments are subject to sales taxes.

For the 52-week period ending July 31, 1999, the Department of Revenue estimates that sales in Florida were approximately $229,293,149 for disposable diaper products and $10,649,313 for incontinence products.

An infant or toddler is defined in sections 391.302 and 411.202, F.S., as any child from birth to three years of age. As of October 1, 1999, there were approximately 753,278 children from zero to three years of age in Florida.

IV. CONSEQUENCES OF ARTICLE VII, SECTION 18 OF THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION:

A. APPLICABILITY OF THE MANDATES PROVISION:

This bill does not require counties or municipalities to spend funds or to take an action requiring the expenditure of funds.

B. REDUCTION OF REVENUE RAISING AUTHORITY:

Although the bill will reduce the authority of municipalities and counties to raise revenues, the impact is expected to be insignificant and the bill is therefore exempt from the provisions of Article VII, Section 18(b), Florida Constitution.

C. REDUCTION OF STATE TAX SHARED WITH COUNTIES AND MUNICIPALITIES:

While the bill will reduce the amount of the Local Government Half Cent Sales Tax shared with municipalities and counties, it does not reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with municipalities and counties. Therefore, Article VII, Section 18(b), Florida Constitution does not apply.

V. COMMENTS:

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

N/A

C. OTHER COMMENTS:

None

VI. AMENDMENTS OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES:

On April 24, 2000, the Committee on Finance and Taxation adopted two amendments to the bill before making it into a Committee Substitute. The first amendment, which was based on a suggestion from the Department of Revenue, struck the words "for infants" from the bill. This change simplifies the administration of the bill by eliminating any need to investigate the age of the individual for whom the diaper is being purchased. The second amendment provided an appropriation of $46,400 to the Department of Revenue for the purpose of administering this act. In addition, the second amendment provides that this Act will be repealed on December 31, 2002.
