(b) If the special master selects the bargaining agent's last and best offer regarding an issue and if funding for selection would create a financial emergency such that the public employer would have to raise ad valorem taxes or fees, then, within 15 days after transmittal of the special master's decision, the chief executive officer must certify in writing to the representative for the certified bargaining agent and the special master that enforcement of that selection would create a financial emergency. The chief executive officer must set forth his or her reasons supporting that conclusion. The legislative body shall, within 30 days after the date of the financial emergency certification, conduct a public hearing. At that public hearing the parties shall explain their respective positions regarding the financial emergency certification and the issue triggering such certification. Thereafter, the legislative body shall take such action as it deems to be in the public interest, including the interest of the public employees involved, to resolve the issue certified as creating a financial emergency. The financial emergency issue resolved by the legislative body shall be stated in writing and signed by the chief executive officer and the representative for the certified bargaining agent and submitted for ratification to the public employer and to the public employees who are members of the bargaining unit. If that agreement is not ratified by all parties pursuant to the provisions of s. 447.309, the legislative body's action shall take effect as of the date of such legislative body's action for the remainder of the first fiscal year which was the subject of negotiations.

1 (4) In the event that either the public employer or 2 the employee organization does not accept, in whole or in 3 part, the recommended decision of the special master: 4 (a) The chief executive officer of the governmental 5 entity involved shall, within 10 days after rejection of a recommendation of the special master, submit to the 6 7 legislative body of the governmental entity involved a copy of 8 the findings of fact and recommended decision of the special master, together with the chief executive officer's 9 recommendations for settling the disputed impasse issues. The 10 chief executive officer shall also transmit his or her 11 12 recommendations to the employee organization. If the dispute 13 involves employees for whom the Board of Regents is the public 14 employer, the Governor may also submit recommendations to the legislative body for settling the disputed impasse issues; 15 (b) The employee organization shall submit its 16 recommendations for settling the disputed impasse issues to 17 such legislative body and to the chief executive officer; 18 19 (c) The legislative body or a duly authorized 20 committee thereof shall forthwith conduct a public hearing at which the parties shall be required to explain their positions 21 22 with respect to the rejected recommendations of the special 23 master; 24 (d) Thereafter, the legislative body shall take such 25 action as it deems to be in the public interest, including the 26 interest of the public employees involved, to resolve all disputed impasse issues; and 27 28 (e) Following the resolution of the disputed impasse issues by the legislative body, the parties shall reduce to 29 writing an agreement which includes those issues agreed to by 30

31 the parties and those disputed impasse issues resolved by the legislative body's action taken pursuant to paragraph (d). The agreement shall be signed by the chief executive officer and the bargaining agent and shall be submitted to the public employer and to the public employees who are members of the bargaining unit for ratification. If such agreement is not ratified by all parties, pursuant to the provisions of s. 447.309, the legislative body's action taken pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (d) shall take effect as of the date of such legislative body's action for the remainder of the first fiscal year which was the subject of negotiations; however, the legislative body's action shall not take effect with respect to those disputed impasse issues which establish the language of contractual provisions which could have no effect in the absence of a ratified agreement, including, but not limited to, preambles, recognition clauses, and duration clauses.

Section 2. This act shall take effect October 1, 2000.
