6 of the privilege as defined in the preceding paragraph. Each

12 basis of the actual price of the admission charged by the 13 dealer. The sale price or actual value of admission shall, 14 for the purpose of this chapter, be that price remaining after 15 deduction of federal taxes and state or locally imposed or 16 authorized seat surcharges, taxes, or fees, if any, imposed
17 upon such admission. The sale price or actual value does not 18 include separately stated ticket service charges that are 19 imposed by a facility ticket office or a ticketing service and

20 facility and when 100 percent of the risk of success or 21 failure lies with the sponsor of the event and 100 percent of 10 any semifinal game or championship game of a national 11 collegiate tournament, or on admissions to a Major League

31 sponsoring live theater, live opera, or live ballet

1 productions in this state, has more than 10,000 subscribing

4 serves, and will receive at least 20 percent of the net
5 profits, if any, of the events which the organization sponsors
6 and will bear the risk of at least 20 percent of the losses,
7 if any, from the events which it sponsors if the organization 8 employs other persons as agents to provide services in 9 connection with a sponsored event. Prior to March 1 of each
10 year, such organization may apply to the department for a
11 certificate of exemption for admissions to such events 12 sponsored in this state by the organization during the 13 immediately following state fiscal year. The application shall 14 state the total dollar amount of admissions receipts collected 15 by the organization or its agents from such events in this 16 state sponsored by the organization or its agents in the year
17 immediately preceding the year in which the organization
18 applies for the exemption. Such organization shall receive the 19 exemption only to the extent of $1.5 million multiplied by the 20 ratio that such receipts bear to the total of such receipts of 21 all organizations applying for the exemption in such year;
22 however, in no event shall such exemption granted to any 23 organization exceed 6 percent of such admissions receipts
24 collected by the organization or its agents in the year
25 immediately preceding the year in which the organization
26 applies for the exemption. Each organization receiving the 27 exemption shall report each month to the department the total 28 admissions receipts collected from such events sponsored by 29 the organization during the preceding month and shall remit to 30 the department an amount equal to 6 percent of such receipts
31 reduced by any amount remaining under the exemption. Tickets

1 for such events sold by such organizations shall not reflect 2 the tax otherwise imposed under this section.

3 7. Also exempt from the tax imposed by this section
4 are entry fees for participation in freshwater fishing
5 tournaments.

6 8. Also exempt from the tax imposed by this section
7 are participation or entry fees charged to participants in a

12 Collegiate Athletic Association.

13 (3) Such taxes shall be paid and remitted at the same 14 time and in the same manner as provided for remitting taxes on 15 sales of tangible personal property, as hereinafter provided.
16 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the tax
17 on admission to an event at a convention hall, exhibition
18 hall, auditorium, stadium, theater, arena, civic center,
19 performing arts center, or publicly owned recreational 20 facility shall be collected at the time of payment for the 21 admission but is not due to the department until the first day 22 of the month following the actual date of the event for which 23 the admission is sold and becomes delinquent on the 21st day
24 of that month.

25 (2) No tax imposed by chapter 212, Florida Statutes, 26 on the transactions exempted under this section, and not 27 actually paid or collected by a taxpayer before the effective 28 date of this section, shall be due from such taxpayer.
