17 and insert:

18 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if all 19 candidates for an office are seeking the nomination of the 20 same political party and there is no opposition in the general
21 election or there is only opposition from a write-in 22 candidate, all registered electors, regardless of party 23 affiliation, may vote for a candidate for that office in the 24 first primary election and, if necessary, in the general
25 election.

26 (2) If two or more candidates have qualified for an 27 office and only one political party is represented and there
28 is no opposition in the general election or there is only 29 opposition from a write-in candidate, the names of all 30 non-write-in candidates for the office shall be placed on the 31 first primary election ballot of each political party holding
