B. PRESENT SITUATION:

During the 1999 interim, Speaker Thrasher, President Jennings, and Governor Bush requested their respective staffs to conduct a review of the Florida Statutes with the goal of repealing those statutory sections (and portions of statutory sections) that are obsolete, redundant, inoperative, or that no longer served their intended function. Statutory Revision participated in the review and drafted suggestions for changes in law. Public input was solicited through Online Sunshine.

Committee staff reviewed proposed changes and made suggestions for inclusion or deletion in what was to become the repeal bill for areas under the jurisdiction of the Tourism Committee. Prior to making suggestions staff consulted with the Departments of State, Management Services, and Business and Professional Regulation, the Florida Commission on Tourism and its direct support organization (VISIT FLORIDA), and the Florida Sports Foundation. Additionally, Statutory Revision developed revisers bills which were reviewed by substantive committee staff. After consultation with staff from Statutory Revision and the Rules Committee, the repeal bill was refined to delete some provisions included in the reviser bills and the same was done with the revisers bills.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

House Bill 4033 repeals obsolete and inoperative provisions from various statutes, amends provisions to conform to repealed provisions, and corrects cross references. Statements of legislative intent and purpose are not addressed by this bill. Please see the Section-By-Section Analysis for a description of each change.
