I. SUMMARY:

This bill authorizes a referendum for the creation of a municipality named the Village of Paradise Islands. This bill also provides for its charter.

According to the Department of Revenue, there is a projected loss of revenue to Monroe County of $486,051, annually. The other cities in Monroe County will also experience a combined loss of $146,184 in annual revenue because of the redistribution of state revenue-sharing funds. These revenues will instead be distributed to the Village of Paradise Islands.

II. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

For any principle that received a "no" above, please explain:

Subject to a referendum, this bill creates a new municipality which will have all the rights and responsibilities granted to municipalities in Chapter 125, Florida Statutes, and in the Florida Constitution.

Subject to a referendum, this bill grants the newly incorporated Village of Paradise Islands the authority to levy any and all taxes and fees provided for in general law and the Florida Constitution for municipalities.

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Florida Constitution

Section 2, Art. VIII, of the State Constitution provides that municipalities may be established or abolished and their charters amended pursuant to general or special law. When any municipality is abolished, the Constitution requires that provision be made for the protection of its creditors.

Municipalities are constitutionally granted all governmental, corporate and proprietary powers to enable them to conduct municipal government, perform municipal functions and render municipal services. Municipalities may exercise any power for municipal purposes except as otherwise provided by law. The only specific constitutional requirement concerning municipal government is that its legislative body must be elected.

Chapter 165, Florida Statutes

Florida law governing the formation and dissolution of municipal governments is found in Chapter 165, Florida Statutes, the "Formation of Municipalities Act." The stated purpose of the Act is to provide standards, direction, and procedures for the incorporation, merger and dissolution of municipalities, and to achieve the following goals:

- Orderly patterns of growth and land use;
- Adequate public services;
- Financial integrity in government;
- Equity in fiscal capacity; and
- Fair cost distribution for municipal services.

Requirements for Municipal Incorporation

Under Chapter 165, Florida Statutes, there is only one way to establish a city government where no such government existed before: the Legislature must pass a special act creating the city's charter.

For incorporation purposes, the special act must include a proposed municipal charter that prescribes the form of government and clearly defines the legislative and executive functions of city government. It cannot prohibit tax levies authorized by law.

Special acts must meet requirements of section 10, Art. III, of the State Constitution, which requires that notice of an intent to file a special act be either published in a local newspaper or conditioned to become effective only on approval by area electors. If notice by publication is the preferred method, section 11.02, Florida Statutes, specifies that the publication of notice occur one time, at least 30 days prior to bill introduction.

The 1999 Legislature revised section 165.041, Florida Statutes, by adding new, more detailed requirements for the preparation of the required feasibility study for any area requesting incorporation. The purpose of the study is to enable the Legislature to determine whether or not the area: 1) meets the statutory requirements for incorporation, and 2) is financially feasible. Specifically, the study must include:

- The general location of territory subject to boundary change and a map of the area which identifies the proposed change.
- The major reasons for proposing the boundary change.
- The following characteristics of the area:
 - A list of the current land use designations applied to the subject area in the county comprehensive plan.
 - A list of the current county zoning designations applied to the subject area.
 - A general statement of present land use characteristics of the area.
 - A description of development being proposed for the territory, if any, and a statement of when actual development is expected to begin, if known.
- A list of all public agencies, such as local governments, school districts, and special districts, whose current boundary falls within the boundary of the territory proposed for the change or reorganization.
- A list of current service providers and estimate of the cost of services.
- A list of proposed service providers and estimate of the cost of the proposed services.
- The names and addresses of three officers or persons submitting the proposal.
- Evidence of fiscal capacity and an organizational plan that, at a minimum, includes:
 - Existing tax bases, including ad valorem taxable value, utility taxes, sales and use taxes, franchise taxes, license and permit fees, charges for services, fines and forfeitures, and other revenue sources, as appropriate.
 - A 5-year operational plan that, at a minimum, includes proposed staffing, building acquisition and construction, debt issuance, budgets.
- Data and analysis to support the conclusions that incorporation is necessary and financially feasible.

- Population projections and population density calculations and an explanation concerning methodologies used for such analysis.
- Evaluation of the alternatives available to the area to address its policy concerns.
- Evidence that the proposed municipality meets the standards for incorporation of section 165.061, Florida Statutes. These standards are:
 - The area to be incorporated must be compact, contiguous, and amenable to separate municipal government.
 - The area proposed to be incorporated must have a total population, as determined in the latest official state census, special census, or estimate of population, of at least 1,500 persons in counties with a population of less than 75,000, and of at least 5,000 population in counties with a population of more than 75,000.
 - The area must have an average population density of at least 1.5 persons per acre or have extraordinary conditions requiring the establishment of a municipal corporation with less existing density.
 - Any part of the area proposed for incorporation must have a minimum distance of at least 2 miles from the boundaries of an existing municipality within the county. Alternately, an extraordinary natural boundary that requires separate municipal government must be present.

In addition, a feasibility study must be completed and submitted to the Legislature at least 90 days prior to the first day of the regular Legislative Session during which the municipal charter would be enacted. For those proposed incorporations for the 2000 Legislative Session, feasibility studies were required to be submitted to the Committee on Community Affairs prior to December 8, 1999.

A municipal charter should contain matters which are of such importance that they should not be subject to change by simple ordinance. For example, chapter 166, Florida Statutes, requires that each municipality provide procedures for filling a vacancy in an elected office caused by death, resignation, or removal from office. While this requirement may be satisfied through the passage of an ordinance, the issue is fundamental enough to the governance of a municipality to be included in its charter.

The National Municipal League has recommended that a charter include an article on each of the following topics:

Powers of the City
City Council
Chief Administrative Officers (City Manager and Attorney)
Administrative Departments
Financial Procedures
Planning
Nominations and Elections
Initiative and Referendums
General Provisions
Transitional Provisions

Municipal Incorporation

From 1972 to the present, 15 municipalities were created by special act (Bonita Springs, DeBary, Deltona, Destin, Ft. Myers Beach, Islamorada, Jacob City, Lake Mary, Marathon, Marco Island, Midway, Palm Coast, Sanibel, Wellington, Weston). During this time, one was recreated by special act after previous incorporation under authority of general law in effect prior to 1974 (Seminole). The cities of Key Biscayne, Pinecrest, Aventura, and Sunny Isles Beach were created under the charter provisions of Dade County's Charter. The following table indicates recent municipal incorporations by year, county, and enabling law.

Failed Attempts at Municipal Incorporation

Over the years, a number of incorporation attempts have failed. Since 1980, some Floridians have rejected municipal government by voting down the incorporation efforts of:

The City of Marco Island (1980/1982/1986/1990/1993)
(Chapters 80-541, 82-330, 86-434, 90-457, and 93-384, Laws of Florida)

The City of Fort Myers Beach (1982/1986)
(Chapters 82-295, and 86-413, Laws of Florida)

A city in the Halifax area of Volusia County (1985)
(Chapter 85-504, Laws of Florida)

The City of Spring Hill (1986)
(Chapter 86-463, Laws of Florida)

The City of Deltona Lakes (1987)
(Chapter 87-449, Laws of Florida)

The City of Deltona (1990)
(Chapter 90-410, Laws of Florida)

The City of Port LaBelle (1994)
(Chapter 94-480, Laws of Florida)

The City of Destin (1995)
(by authority of the Dade County Charter)

The City of Ponte Vedra (1998)
(Chapter 98-534, Laws of Florida)

The Village of Key Largo (1999)
(Chapter 99-430, Laws of Florida)

The City of Southport (1999)
(Chapter 99-444, Laws of Florida)

Municipal Mergers

A few previously existing cities have been incorporated through merger with other cities. Examples include:

- In Brevard County, the merger of Eau Gallie with Melbourne (Chapters 67-1156, 69-879, and 70-807, Laws of Florida) and the merger of the Town of Whispering Hills Golf Estates with the City of Titusville (Chapters 59-1991 and 63-2001, Laws of Florida).
- In Pinellas County, the merger of Pass-A-Grille Beach with the City of St. Petersburg Beach (Chapter 57-1814, Laws of Florida).

- In Bay County, the merger of Longbeach Resort and Edgewater Gulf Beach with the City of Panama City Beach (Chapters 67-2174 and 70-874, Laws of Florida).

Municipal Dissolutions

During the last decade or so, several cities have been dissolved:

- Bithlo in Orange County by authority of the Secretary of State in January 1977;
- Bayview in Bay County by Chapter 77-501, Laws of Florida;
- Munson Island in Monroe County by Chapter 81-438, Laws of Florida;
- Painters Hill in Flagler County by Chapter 81-453, Laws of Florida;
- Hacienda Village in Broward County by Chapter 84-420, Laws of Florida;
- Pennsuco in Dade County under authority of the Dade County Charter; and
- Golfview in Palm Beach County by Chapter 97-329, Laws of Florida.

The Proposed Village of Paradise Islands

The Proposed Village of Paradise Islands, with an estimated population of 5,073 in 1999, consists of not only one key in Monroe County, but rather is comprised of many. Some of these keys include: Little Duck Key, Missouri Key, Ohio Key, Bahia Honda Key, West Summerland Key/Spanish Harbor Key, Big Pine Key, No Name Key, and the New Found Harbor chain of Islands. This village would extend from MM40 (Seven Mile Bridge) to MM29.5. Although this area has some of the finest diving and fishing boats, this area does not have a lot of tourist accommodations. It is known as the home of “worker bees and retirees”. In addition, two of the islands, Big Pine Key and No Name Key, do serve an important role as they are two of the few remaining protected havens for the Florida Key Deer. These two islands support more than two-thirds (approximately 600) of the remaining deer population. No Name Key, the northern undeveloped parts of Big Pine Key, and other smaller islands, are part of the National Key Deer Refuge, which was established in 1957.

Section 380.0552, Florida Statutes, designates the Florida Keys as an area of state critical concern. The legislative intent of the “Florida Keys Area Protection Act” is:

- To establish a land use management system that protects the natural environment of the Florida Keys;
- To establish a land use management system that conserves and promotes the community character of the Florida Keys;
- To establish a land use management system that promotes orderly and balanced growth in accordance with the capacity of available and planned public facilities and services;
- To provide for affordable housing in close proximity to places of employment in the Florida Keys;
- To establish a land use management system that promotes and supports a diverse and sound economic base;
- To protect the constitutional rights of property owners to own, use, and dispose of their real property; and

- To promote coordination and efficiency among governmental agencies with permitting jurisdiction over land use activities in the Florida Keys.

The Department of Community Affairs closely regulates all planning activities that occur in the Florida Keys. In addition, due to the designation, the Village would have to adopt a comprehensive plan in the type and manner set out in Chapter 163, Part II, F.S., Rule 9J-5, F.A.C., and the requirements of Chapter 380.05, Florida Statutes, within 3 years after the date of incorporation. The Department of Community Affairs also has executed an interagency agreement to develop a Habitat Conservation Plan (HCP) for Big Pine Key.

The Citizens Committee for The Village of Paradise Islands is a grass-roots community group which have spearheaded the effort for incorporation. According to this group, the primary reason for incorporation is due to dissatisfaction with Monroe County. The feasibility study lists the following reasons:

- Lack of responsiveness of the elected County Commissioners to local issues;
- Poorly delivered services by Monroe County;
- Inadequate recreational land and programs provided by Monroe County;
- Poor maintenance of secondary roads by Monroe County;
- Lack of control over destiny of the community; and
- Delayed responsiveness by Monroe County to natural disasters.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

This bill authorizes a referendum for the creation of a municipality named the Village of Paradise Islands. This bill also provides for its charter.

C. OTHER COMMENTS:

The House Committee on Community Affairs coordinates a review of the feasibility study required by section 165.041, Florida Statutes, and the proposed charter with various other legislative committees and appropriate state agencies. Reviews are performed by the Department of Revenue, the Legislative Committee on Intergovernmental Relations, the Office of Economic and Demographic Research, and the Department of Community Affairs. The submission of the village's feasibility study was received prior to the 90-day statutory deadline.

Reviews of the feasibility study and charter similarly conclude that the community of Paradise Islands does not meet one of the statutory requirements for becoming a municipality. The area is compact and contiguous, meets the minimum population requirement of 5,000 persons, and the minimum 2-mile limit within the proximity of an existing municipality (Note: The proposed Village of the Lower Keys, CS/HB 565, is adjacent to the proposed Village of Paradise Islands). However, the area does not meet the minimum density requirement of 1.5 persons per acre as it appears that the population density is .62 persons per acre. One of the reasons for the low population density may be attributed to the fact that a portion of land is owned either by the Federal or State government (for example the Florida Key Deer Refuge). Additionally, there is a current building moratorium in place. This unmet standard is automatically waived by virtue of the approval of this special act by the Legislature.

The review comments also provide insight into some of the flaws of the feasibility study and suggestions for amendments to make necessary changes to the charter. (See amendment section.) The review comments and study are available in the committee office for persons desiring to inspect them.

It should also be noted that the Big Pine Key Civic Association, an opponent of incorporation for this area, submitted a letter raising concerns relating to the feasibility study projections. In addition, the Association requested that this bill be withdrawn from consideration.

V. AMENDMENTS OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES:

On February 8, 2000, the Committee on Community Affairs adopted a strike-everything amendment by Representative Sorensen, addressing the issues raised by the review comments, providing technical corrections, and formatting changes.

On March 9, 2000, the Committee on Finance and Taxation amended the bill to make additional technical corrections, formatting changes, and responded to additional review comments. This amendment was then engrossed into the bill, and a committee substitute was adopted.
