9 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

10

11 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section
12 443.101, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

13 443.101 Disqualification for benefits.--An individual
14 shall be disqualified for benefits:

15 (1)(a) For the week in which he or she has voluntarily
16 left his or her work without good cause attributable to his or 17 her employing unit or in which the individual has been 18 discharged by his or her employing unit for misconduct
19 connected with his or her work, if so found by the division.
20 The term "work," as used in this paragraph, means any work,
21 whether full-time, part-time, or temporary.

22 1. Disqualification for voluntarily quitting shall 23 continue for the full period of unemployment next ensuing 24 after he or she has left his or her full-time, part-time, or 25 temporary work voluntarily without good cause and until such 26 individual has earned income equal to or in excess of 17 times 27 his or her weekly benefit amount; the term "good cause" as 28 used in this subsection includes only such cause as is 29 attributable to the employing unit or which consists of 30 illness or disability of the individual requiring separation
31 from his or her work or being a victim of domestic violence

1 which results in being separated from work. No other
2 disqualification may be imposed. An individual shall not be 3 disqualified under this subsection for voluntarily leaving 4 temporary work to return immediately when called to work by 5 the permanent employing unit that temporarily terminated his 6 or her work within the previous 6 calendar months.

7 2. Disqualification for being discharged for 8 misconduct connected with his or her work shall continue for 9 the full period of unemployment next ensuing after having been 10 discharged and until such individual has become reemployed and 11 has earned income not less than 17 times his or her weekly
12 benefit amount and for not more than 52 weeks that immediately
13 follow such week, as determined by the division in each case
14 according to the circumstances in each case or the seriousness
15 of the misconduct, pursuant to rules of the division enacted 16 for determinations of disqualification for benefits for 17 misconduct.

18 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2000.
