(c) Effective October 1, 1999, "special risk member" means a member of the Florida Retirement System who is designated as a special risk member by the division in accordance with s. 121.0515. Such member must be employed as a law enforcement officer, a firefighter, a correctional officer, an emergency medical technician, or a paramedic and must meet certain other special criteria as set forth in s. 121.0515. Effective January 1, 2001, the term "special risk member" also includes any member who is employed as a correctional probation officer and meets the special criteria set forth in s. 121.0515(2)(e).

Section 2. Subsection (2) of section 121.0515, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

121.0515 Special risk membership; criteria; designation and removal of classification; credits for past service and prior service; retention of special risk normal retirement date. --

- (2) CRITERIA. -- A member, to be designated as a special risk member, must meet the following criteria:
- (a) The member must be employed as a law enforcement officer and be certified, or required to be certified, in compliance with s. 943.1395; however, sheriffs and elected police chiefs shall be excluded from meeting the certification requirements of this paragraph. In addition, the member's duties and responsibilities must include the pursuit, apprehension, and arrest of law violators or suspected law violators; or the member must be an active member of a bomb disposal unit whose primary responsibility is the location, handling, and disposal of explosive devices; or the member must be the supervisor or command officer of a member or 31 members who have such responsibilities; provided, however, administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, those whose primary duties and responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal, and personnel, shall not be included;

- (b) The member must be employed as a firefighter and be certified, or required to be certified, in compliance with s. 633.35 and be employed solely within the fire department of the employer or agency of state government. In addition, the member's duties and responsibilities must include on-the-scene fighting of fires or direct supervision of firefighting units, or the member must be the supervisor or command officer of a member or members who have such responsibilities; provided, however, administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, those whose primary duties and responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal, and personnel, shall not be included;
- (c) The member must be employed as a correctional officer and be certified, or required to be certified, in compliance with s. 943.1395. In addition, the member's primary duties and responsibilities must be the custody, and physical restraint when necessary, of prisoners or inmates within a prison, jail, or other criminal detention facility, or while on work detail outside the facility, or while being transported; or the member must be the supervisor or command officer of a member or members who have such responsibilities; provided, however, administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, those whose primary duties and responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal, and personnel, shall not be included; however, superintendents and assistant superintendents shall participate in the Special 31 | Risk Class; or

- (d) The member must be employed by a licensed Advance Life Support (ALS) or Basic Life Support (BLS) employer as an emergency medical technician or a paramedic and be certified in compliance with s. 401.27. In addition, the member's primary duties and responsibilities must include on-the-scene emergency medical care. However, administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, those whose primary responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal, and personnel, shall not be included; or:
- (e)1. The member must be employed as a correctional probation officer and be certified, or required to be certified, in compliance with s. 943.1395. In addition, the member's primary duties and responsibilities must be the supervised custody, surveillance, control, investigation, and counseling of assigned inmates, probationers, parolees, or community controllees within institutions of the community; or the member must be the supervisor of a member or members who have such responsibilities. Administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, those whose primary duties and responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal services, and personnel management, shall not be included; however, probation and parole circuit and deputy circuit administrators shall participate in the Special Risk Class.
- 2. The member must be employed in a state forensic facility as defined in s. 916.106, established for the treatment of forensic clients, and must have been certified as a correctional officer as defined in s. 943.10(2). In addition, his or her primary responsibilities must require the custody, control, and physical restraint of patients in a forensic unit of a state hospital, or the member must be the supervisor of a member or members who have such responsibilities. However, professional medical personnel and 1 2 administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, dentists, doctors, nurses, and individuals whose primary 3 4 responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal, 5 clerical support, and personnel, shall not be included. 6 Section 3. The Legislature finds that a proper and 7 legitimate state purpose is served when employees and retirees 8 of the state and of its political subdivisions, and the 9 dependents, survivors, and beneficiaries of such employees and retirees, are extended the basic protections afforded by 10 11 governmental retirement systems that provide fair and adequate 12 benefits and that are managed, administered, and funded in an 13 actuarially sound manner, as required by Section 14 of Article 14 X of the State Constitution and part VII of chapter 112, Florida Statutes. Therefore, the Legislature determines and 15 16 declares that the provisions of this act fulfill an important 17 state interest. Section 4. Paragraphs (c) and (h) of subsection (1) of 18 19 section 121.055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 20 121.055 Senior Management Service Class. -- There is 21 hereby established a separate class of membership within the 22 Florida Retirement System to be known as the "Senior 23 Management Service Class, " which shall become effective 24 February 1, 1987. 25 (1)26 (c)1. Effective January 1, 1990, Participation in the 27 Senior Management Service Class shall be compulsory: 28 a. Effective January 1, 1990, for up to 75 nonelective 29 positions at the level of committee staff director or higher or equivalent managerial or policymaking positions within the 30

31 House of Representatives, as selected by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, up to 50 nonelective positions at the level of committee staff director or higher or equivalent managerial or policymaking positions within the Senate, as selected by the President of the Senate, all staff directors of joint committees and service offices of the Legislature, the Auditor General and up to 9 managerial or policymaking positions within his or her office as selected by the Auditor General, and the executive director of the Commission on Ethics.

in each judicial circuit. Effective January 1, 1994, additional positions in the offices of the state attorney and public defender in each judicial circuit may be designated for inclusion in the Senior Management Service Class of the Florida Retirement System, provided that:

- a. Positions to be included in the class shall be designated by the state attorney or public defender, as appropriate. Notice of intent to designate positions for inclusion in the class shall be published once a week for 2 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties affected, as provided in chapter 50.
- b. One nonelective full-time position may be designated for each state attorney and public defender reporting to the Department of Management Services; for agencies with 200 or more regularly established positions under the state attorney or public defender, additional nonelective full-time positions may be designated, not to exceed 0.5 percent of the regularly established positions within the agency.
- c. Each position added to the class must be a managerial or policymaking position filled by an employee who serves at the pleasure of the state attorney or public defender without civil service protection, and who:
 - (I) Heads an organizational unit; or
- (II) Has responsibility to effect or recommend personnel, budget, expenditure, or policy decisions in his or her areas of responsibility.
- 2. Participation in this class shall be compulsory, except as provided in subparagraph 3., for any judicial 31 employee who holds a position designated for coverage in the Senior Management Service Class, and such participation shall continue until the employee terminates employment in a covered position. Effective January 1, 2001, participation in this class is compulsory for assistant state attorneys, assistant statewide prosecutors, and assistant public defenders.

3. In lieu of participation in the Senior Management Service Class, such members may participate in the Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program as established in subsection (6).

Section 5. This act shall take effect January 1, 2001.

Includes correctional probation officers in the Special Risk Class of the Florida Retirement System provided that they meet prescribed criteria, and includes probation and parole regional administrators in the Special Risk Class. Provides that a member of the Florida Retirement System meets the criteria for membership in the Special Risk Class if the member is employed in a state forensic facility, established for the treatment of forensic clients, holds certification as a correctional officer, and his or her primary responsibilities require the custody, control, and physical restraint of patients in a forensic unit of a state hospital. Includes members of the system who supervise a member or members who have such responsibilities within the special risk category. Provides exceptions. Provides a finding of important state interest. Includes assistant state attorneys, assistant statewide prosecutors, assistant public defenders, and legislative assistants in the Senior Management Service Class of the Florida Retirement System. See bill for details.
