House Resolution

A resolution commemorating the art and science of Florida barbeque.

WHEREAS, three out of four United States households own a barbeque grill, and

WHEREAS, barbeque grilling is a uniquely southern tradition that is now enjoyed throughout the United States, and

WHEREAS, the styles of barbeque cooked in Florida are as diverse as the people who inhabit our great state, and

WHEREAS, the promotion of barbeque in Florida benefits the economic, cultural, and tourist segments of our state, and

WHEREAS, those who cook and enjoy barbeque need a voice in Florida to promote the enjoyment of this unique culinary tradition, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the House of Representatives of the State of Florida hereby bestows the high honor of Florida Secretary of Barbecue on State Representative George Albright.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Representative Albright and his assignees and designees are hereby charged with representing the State of Florida and the people of the State of Florida at functions and events promoting and relating to the enjoyment of barbeque.
