The Committee on Ethics and Elections recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 2, lines 1-23, delete those lines and insert:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the State Constitution, the Governor shall fill by appointment any vacancy in a state, district, or county office, other than a member or officer of the Legislature, for the remainder of the term of an appointive office ~~officer~~ and for the remainder of the term of an elective office, if there is less than 28 months remaining in the term; otherwise, until the first Tuesday after the first Monday following the next general election. With respect to any office which requires confirmation by the Senate, the person so appointed may hold an ad interim term of office subject to the provisions of s. 114.05. The ad interim term runs from the date of appointment until the end of the next ensuing session of the Legislature, or until confirmation of an appointee for the unexpired

1 portion of the term, whichever occurs first.

2 (2) Each secretary or division director of a 3 department of the executive branch who is required by law to 4 be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate shall 5 serve at the pleasure of the Governor, unless otherwise
6 provided by law, and the appointment of such person shall run 7 concurrently with the term of the Governor making the 8 appointment. In the event a Governor is elected to a second 9 term of office pursuant to s. 5, Art. IV of the State 10 Constitution, each secretary or division director so appointed 11 shall be reappointed or, at the discretion of the Governor, 12 replaced by a new appointee. Reappointments to the same office 13 shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate as provided in 14 s. 114.05.

15 Redesignate subsequent subsection.
