A bill to be entitled
An act relating to construction materials mining activities; repealing s. 552.30, F.S., which provides the State Fire Marshal with sole and exclusive authority to promulgate standards, limits, and regulations regarding the use of explosives in conjunction with construction materials mining activities; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 552.30, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.

HOUSE SUMMARY

Repeals s. 552.30, F.S., which:

1. Provides the State Fire Marshal with sole and exclusive authority to promulgate standards, limits, and regulations regarding the use of explosives in conjunction with construction materials mining activities, defined as the extraction of limestone and sand suitable for production of construction aggregates, sand, cement, and road base materials, and specifies the scope of such authority.

2. Requires the State Fire Marshal to establish statewide ground vibration limits for such activities.

3. Authorizes the State Fire Marshal to delegate to applicable municipalities or counties monitoring and enforcement components of such regulation, which may include the assessment and collection of fees for carrying out delegated duties.
