

By the Committee on Crime Prevention, Corrections & Safety and Representatives Needelman and Bilirakis

1                                   A bill to be entitled
2           An act relating to the exclusionary rule;
3           creating s. 90.959, F.S.; providing legislative 4           findings regarding the Division of Driver
5           Licenses of the Department of Highway Safety
6           and Motor Vehicles; providing legislative 7           findings regarding records maintained by the 8           division; providing legislative findings
9           regarding the mission of the division and the 10          department; providing legislative findings
11          regarding the application of the exclusionary
12          rule; prohibiting the exclusion of evidence in 13          certain circumstances; amending s. 322.20, 14          F.S.; providing that the records of the 15          Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles
16          maintained and created pursuant to ch. 322,
17          F.S., shall not be considered law enforcement
18          functions; providing an effective date.

20 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

21
22           Section 1. Section 90.959, Florida Statutes, is 23           created to read:

24           90.959 Admission of evidence obtained from the 25           Division of Driver Licenses.--

26           (1) The Legislature finds that the Division of Driver
27           Licenses of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor 28           Vehicles is not a law enforcement agency. The Legislature
29           also finds that the division is not an adjunct of any law 30           enforcement agency in that employees have no stake in 31           particular prosecutions. The Legislature further finds that

1 errors in records maintained by the division are not within 2 the collective knowledge of any law enforcement agency. The 3 Legislature also finds that the mission of the Division of 4 Driver Licenses and the Department of Highway Safety and Motor
5 Vehicles provides a sufficient incentive to maintain records
6 in a current and correct fashion.

7 (2) The Legislature finds that the purpose of the 8 exclusionary rule is to deter misconduct on the part of law
9 enforcement officers and law enforcement agencies.

10 (3) The Legislature finds that the application of the 11 exclusionary rule to cases where a law enforcement officer
12 effects an arrest based on objectively reasonable reliance on 13 information obtained from the division is repugnant to the 14 purposes of the exclusionary rule and contrary to the 15 decisions of the United States Supreme Court in Arizona v.
16 Evans, 514 U.S. 1 (1995) and United States v. Leon, 468 U.S.
17 897 (1984).

18 (4) In any case where a law enforcement officer
19 effects an arrest based on objectively reasonable reliance on 20 information obtained from the division, evidence found 21 pursuant to such an arrest shall not be suppressed by 22 application of the exclusionary rule on the grounds that the 23 arrest is subsequently determined to be unlawful due to 24 erroneous information obtained from the division.

25 Section 2. Subsection (15) is added to section 322.20,
26 Florida Statutes, to read:

27 322.20 Records of the department; fees; destruction of 28 records.--

29 (15) Records of the department and the Division of 30 Driver Licenses created and maintained pursuant to chapter 322
31

1 shall not be regarded as law enforcement functions of agency
2 recordkeeping.

3 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2001.

5 HOUSE SUMMARY

7 Provides that in any case where a law enforcement officer
8 effects an arrest based on objectively reasonable 9 reliance on information obtained from the Division of 10 Driver Licenses of the Department of Highway Safety and 11 Motor Vehicles, evidence found pursuant to such arrest 12 shall not be suppressed by application of the 13 exclusionary rule on the grounds that the arrest is 14 subsequently determined to be unlawful due to erroneous
15 information obtained from the division.

16 Provides that the records of the department maintained
17 and created pursuant to ch. 322, F.S., shall not be 18 considered law enforcement functions.
