

1 disabled, property to the value fixed by general law not less
2 than five hundred dollars.

3 (c) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of 4 its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this 5 subsection and general law, grant community and economic 6 development ad valorem tax exemptions to new businesses and 7 expansions of existing businesses, as defined by general law.
8 Such an exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the 9 county or municipality, and only after the electors of the 10 county or municipality voting on such question in a referendum
11 authorize the county or municipality to adopt such ordinances.
12 An exemption so granted shall apply to improvements to real 13 property made by or for the use of a new business and 14 improvements to real property related to the expansion of an 15 existing business and shall also apply to tangible personal 16 property of such new business and tangible personal property
17 related to the expansion of an existing business. The amount
18 or limits of the amount of such exemption shall be specified
19 by general law. The period of time for which such exemption 20 may be granted to a new business or expansion of an existing 21 business shall be determined by general law. The authority to 22 grant such exemption shall expire ten years from the date of 23 approval by the electors of the county or municipality, and 24 may be renewable by referendum as provided by general law.

25 (d) By general law and subject to conditions specified
26 therein, there may be granted an ad valorem tax exemption to a 27 renewable energy source device and to real property on which 28 such device is installed and operated, to the value fixed by 29 general law not to exceed the original cost of the device, and 30 for the period of time fixed by general law not to exceed ten 31 years.

1 (e) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of
2 its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this
3 subsection and general law, grant historic preservation ad
4 valorem tax exemptions to owners of historic properties. This 5 exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or 6 municipality. The amount or limits of the amount of this 7 exemption and the requirements for eligible properties must be 8 specified by general law. The period of time for which this 9 exemption may be granted to a property owner shall be 10 determined by general law.

11 (f) By general law and subject to conditions specified 12 therein, in addition to any other exemption granted to 13 tangible personal property pursuant to this section, all 14 appurtenances and attachments to mobile home dwellings that 15 are classified as tangible personal property and all
16 appliances, furniture, and fixtures classified as tangible 17 personal property which are included in single-family and 18 multifamily residential rental facilities that have ten or 19 fewer individual housing units may be exempted.

20 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the following statement be 21 placed on the ballot:

22 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

23 ARTICLE VII, SECTION 3
