18 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

19

20 Section 1. This act may be cited as the "Moses General
21 Miles Act."

22 Section 2. (1) For the purpose of establishing a
23 long-term residential care continuum of assisted living
24 facilities for low-income elderly living in urban distressed
25 communities, and as an additional source for community
26 economic development opportunities in specific targeted areas,
27 the Institute on Urban Policy and Commerce at Florida
28 Agricultural and Mechanical University is authorized to 29 develop a grant program to fund five pilot projects to be 30 located in 5 of the 10 urban distressed communities of 31 Pensacola, Tallahassee, Jacksonville, Daytona Beach, Orlando,

1 Tampa, St. Petersburg, West Palm Beach, Ft. Lauderdale, and 2 Miami-Dade. The funding for the five pilot projects shall be 3 provided to not-for-profit community and faith-based 4 organizations located in urban distressed communities. Each
5 organization seeking funding shall submit to a review panel a 6 strategic plan that outlines the need for and the location of 7 assisted living facilities for low-income elderly in the urban 8 distressed communities. The plan should incorporate 9 public-private partnerships that will be used for the 10 development and construction of the assisted living facilities
11 in the urban distressed communities. To be eligible for 12 funding under this program, a not-for-profit community and 13 faith-based organization must hold a current exemption from 14 federal taxation under s. 501(c)(3) or (4) of the Internal 15 Revenue Code. The institute shall develop criteria for the 16 review of the plans. The institute shall give priority
17 consideration for funding under this program to plans
18 submitted by neighborhood-based organizations that have as a
19 principal part of their missions the improvement of conditions
20 for residents of the neighborhoods in which the organizations
21 are located. The institute shall develop weighted criteria to 22 be used in evaluating applications from the community and 23 faith-based organizations.

24 (2) A review panel is created within the institute to 25 evaluate proposals for award of funding for the five pilot
26 projects. The review panel shall consist of seven members 27 appointed by the President of Florida Agricultural and 28 Mechanical University, as follows:

29 (a) One member who is affiliated with the Agency for 30 Health Care Administration.

31

1 (b) The Secretary of Health, or the secretary's 2 designee.

3 (c) The president of Enterprise Florida, Inc., or the 4 president's designee.

5 (d) One member who is from a private-sector investment
6 institution or organization.

7 (e) One member who is affiliated with the Office of 8 Tourism, Trade, and Economic Development.

9 (f) One member who is from a professional trade
10 organization representing long-term-care assisted living 11 facilities.

12 (g) One member who is affiliated with Workforce
13 Florida, Inc.

14
15 The director of the institute, or a designee, shall serve as 16 secretary to the review panel without voting rights.

17 (3) The institute shall develop and provide program
18 technical assistance support to the community and faith-based 19 organizations interested in this community economic 20 development initiative.

21 (4) The institute has the authority to adopt rules to 22 implement the provisions of his section.

23 Section 3. There is appropriated from the General
24 Revenue Fund to the Institute on Urban Policy and Commerce at 25 Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University the sum of $1.5
26 million to develop and provide program technical assistance 27 support to community and faith-based organizations, and for 28 contracts for five pilot projects, pursuant to this act. The 29 institute is authorized to allocate up to $225,000 to each of 30 the five pilot projects.

31 Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2001.
