Section 23. Subsection (1) of section 163.356, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

163.356 Creation of community redevelopment agency.--

(1) Upon a finding of necessity as set forth in s. 163.355, and upon a further finding that there is a need for a community redevelopment agency to function in the county or municipality to carry out the community redevelopment purposes of this part, any county or municipality may create a public body corporate and politic to be known as a "community redevelopment agency." A county or municipality having a population equal to or greater than 50,000 may create, by a vote of at least a majority plus one of the entire governing body of the county or municipality, more than one community redevelopment agency. Each such agency shall be constituted as a public instrumentality, and the exercise by a community
