 18 and insert: filing. Each district school board shall develop 19 policies and procedures to comply with this reporting
 20 requirement. The policies and procedures must include 21 appropriate penalties for nonreporting for all personnel of 22 the district school board and procedures for promptly
 23 informing the superintendent of schools of each legally
 24 sufficient complaint. The superintendent of schools is charged 25 with knowledge of these policies and procedures. If the 26 superintendent of schools has knowledge of a legally
 27 sufficient complaint and does not report the legally 28 sufficient complaint, or if the superintendent fails to 29 enforce the policies and procedures of the district school
 30 board and fails to comply with the requirements of this
