1 ~~statement within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code.~~

2 2. Any other officer described in subsection (3), the 3 filing officer ~~he or she~~ shall mark and index the notice or 4 certificate in the same manner as other instruments filed for 5 recording in the official records.

6 (6) FEES.--The charges or fees of the Secretary of 7 State, with respect to a notice or certificate filed under 8 this section, or for searching records with respect thereto,
9 shall be the same as prescribed in s.ss-15.091 and 679.402,
10 ~~for filing and indexing financing statements or other writings~~
11 ~~under chapter 679, or for searching records with respect~~
12 ~~thereto.~~ The charges or fees of the clerks of the circuit
13 court with respect to a notice or certificate filed under this 14 section shall be the same as prescribed in s. 28.24, relating 15 to instruments recorded in the official records.

16 (7) UNIFORMITY OF APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION.--This 17 section shall be applied and construed to effectuate its 18 general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the 19 subject of this section among the states enacting it and to 20 permit a filing officer, including the Secretary of State, who 21 is now using a paper filing system to record notices of liens, 22 certificates, and other notices affecting federal tax liens or 23 other federal liens to use a filing system consisting of paper
24 or an electronic or magnetic medium, or some combination
25 thereof, as he or she considers appropriate, and to permit
26 federal officials to file notices of liens upon real or 27 personal property for obligations payable to the United 28 States, and certificates and notices affecting those liens, 29 under the filing system being maintained by the Secretary of 30 State or the filing officer.
